Sun Wins National "First"

First place award for newspaper promotion and community relations, in competition with weeklies and dailies throughout the United States, was won by The Sun last week.

Gov. Goodwin Knight presented the plaque symbolizing the achievement to Herman Silverman, editor and publisher of The Sun, at the 72nd annual convention of the National Editorial Association at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

At the same gathering Silverman's weekly column, "Under the Sun," received honorable mention, in national competition among weeklies and dailies, for "columns on a variety of topics."

IN ANNOUNCING the top award to The Sun for newspaper promotion and community relations, the judges stated that The Sun "is a fine example of what an alert, progressive, community-minded newspaper can do."

A few of the examples of The Sun's community service, as cited by the judges, were the organizing of rider pools for commuters, with The Sun's offices as headquarters; publication of school bus schedules and routes, and using the net proceeds in subscription drives to aid local organization projects.

"UNDER THE SUN," the column by Silverman which appears regularly on the editorial page of The Sun, was selected for honorable mention because, the judges said, it represents a "high caliber" of column writing and "a diversity of approach to the job at hand."

"Under the Sun" by Herman Silverman is on the serious side, provocative and highly readable," the judges stated.

THE SUN has won a state or national prize each year since 1951.

Two of these awards have been for Outstanding Disinterested Community Service. Two others of these past awards have been for community relations and promotion.

Last year The Sun won first place for community relations for weeklies in the state and second place for weeklies and dailies in the nation.

THIS YEAR'S national second place for newspaper promotion and community relations went to the Wolcott, N. Y., Lake Shore News. Third place went to the Mount Kisco, N. Y., Patent Trader.

The plaques for the contest in newspaper promotion and community relations were offered by Bernard E. Estes and C. P. Helfenstein, past presidents of the National Editorial Association.

COMMENTING on the latest honor received by The Sun, Silverman said:

"The staff of The Sun thanks the many organizations and individuals in the community who helped make this top award possible."

"It is only through the splendid cooperation of the community that The Sun is able to fill a significant role in the community."

"Therefore this top recognition by the NEA is really a tribute to the entire community."

Dick Osborn, associate editor of The Sun, attended the awards dinner Saturday night at the Sheraton-Palace Hotel.

CONTEST co-chairmen were Leon Barnes of the Northwood, Iowa, Anchor and Earl W. Causey of the Star City, Ark., Ledger.

The committee of judges included Ware Edgar of the Knox, Ind., Starke County Democrat; Dr. Earl English, dean, School of Journalism, Indiana University; Howard Grossman of the Salem, Ind., Republican Leader; Clare J. Hewins Sr. of the Bad Axe, Mich., Huron Daily Tribune; Ralph W. Keller, manager, Minnesota Editorial Association; Frank Baker of the Goss Printing Press Company, Chicago; John E. Stempel, chairman, Department of Journalism, Indiana University; Palmer Sondreal of the Amery, Wis., Free Press; Herbert E. Langendorff, newspaper equipment consultant, Chicago, and M. G. Van Buskirk, executive secretary, Illinois Dairy Products Association.

Larsen Tells Of Local Test Study Results

Dr. Vernon Larsen of Science Research Associates, gave a recent report to the Orinda Board of Trustees concerning the academic achievement of the Orinda School pupils through the grades. Dr. Larsen directed a testing survey of all students from grade 2 through 8 during the school year 1956-57.

The testing took approximately three hours to administer. Study skills including references, charts, reading comprehension and vocabulary, capitalization and punctuation, grammatical usage, spelling, arithmetic reasoning, arithmetic concepts, arithmetic computation, were the areas covered by the test.

After making some preliminary comments on the status of achievement testing throughout the United States, Dr. Larsen made the following observations:

By the time the average Orinda student reaches the 8th grade, he makes a composite score which is one year three months above the national norm. This score is two months above the expected achievement score. The expected achievement score is the national norm corrected for the average I.Q. of the Orinda students.

It is clear that the average Orinda student is making a year's progress academically from grades 4-8.

Lower scores in arithmetic are due, primarily, to the state framework in arithmetic which calls for slower introduction of the concepts through the grades. These lower scores tend to be corrected by the end of the 8th grade and follow-up studies in high school show that our high school students in Orinda rate favorably with other comparable high schools throughout the country.

Soroptimists Will Install New Officers

Soroptimists International of Lafayette-Orinda will close its first year as an organization with an installation banquet honoring their newly elected officers as well as the preceding year's officers.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. is the time and El Nido Rancho the place. All Lafayette-Orinda members and their husbands or friends, as well as all other Soroptimists of the neighboring areas are cordially invited and should make reservations with Eleanor Christensen at AT 4-4879.

Special guests will be district and regional officers of Soroptimists International.

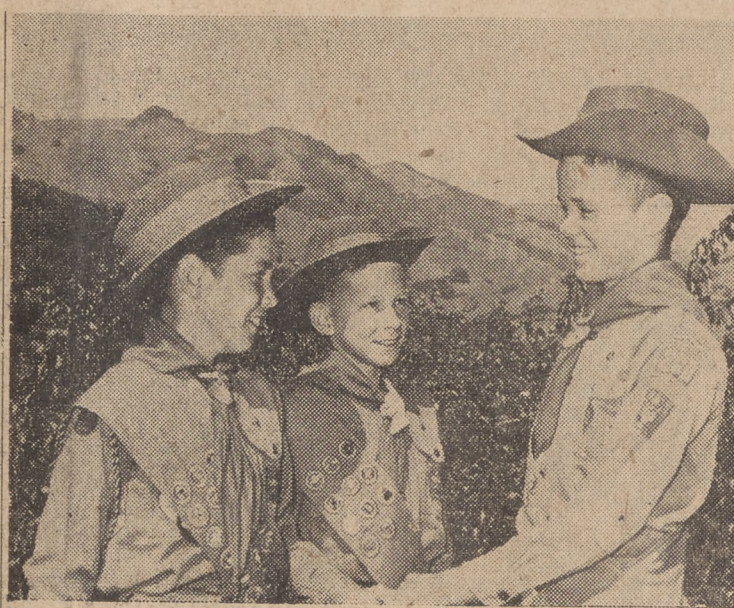

Toastmistress will be Mary Lorentzen, who is Regional Simulation Officer as well as a District Officer of Lafayette-Orinda Soroptimists. New officers will be installed by Mrs. Wanda Austin, Immediate Past-President of the San Francisco Soroptimists.

Mrs. Ester Marchant will relinquish the president's gavel to Leah Belle Blodgett and other officers to be installed are: Vice-president, Alma Blakesley; corresponding secretary, June Allen; recording secretary, Elsie Pingree; treasurer, Lavina Erwin; directors, Esther Marchant and Mary Lorentzen; delegates, Edna Bedsworth, and alternate, June Price.

Talk on Turkey

Nejat Sonmez of the Turkish Information Bureau, San Francisco, talked on Turkey at the Lafayette Rotary Club's weekly luncheon meeting yesterday at El Nido.

Program co-chairmen were Fred Lefel and Don Blackwood.

"CONGRATULATIONS, BROTHER!"—That's what Rick Bowles (left) says to his brother, Robert Bowles Jr. (right), while Jay Nutt looks on. The three are members of Orinda Boy Scout Troop 200 and are among the troop members honored at a Court of Honor Monday night. Bob received the Eagle Scout award, while Rick and Jay received the Life Scout award. The left-handed brotherly handshake seems to emphasize the boys' enthusiasm.

$37 Million School Bill To Aid County Districts

By LOU CANNON

Central Contra Costa County school districts will receive substantial increases in school aid under the terms of a two-year $37 million school bill which passed the State Legislature Wednesday.

The bill, which emerged from a Senate-Assembly conference committee Tuesday, is half of the original figure proposed by Assemblyman Ernest Geddes (R-Claremont) who authored the bill.

HOWEVER, the final measure increases the school equalization aid to many of the poorer school districts, benefiting many of the districts in the central county area.

The funds provided in the bill are in addition to the more than $400 million already allotted for schools in the state budget.

Assemblyman Donald Doyle, who had predicted earlier in the session that the final figure would be close to $49 million, said that he "was not fully satisfied with the bill" but termed it the "best we could get at this time."

"THE LEGISLATURE will have to review and reappraise the entire school apportionment program at its next session," the Lafayette Republican said.

He termed the change in ratio which helps the poorer districts to be "one based on need and a change that I think is entirely in order."

The bill will also provide for salary increases for teachers. Another bill now before the governor, authored by State Senator George Miller, has boosted the state minimum teaching salary from $3400 to $4200.

THE LEGISLATORS avoided a gubernatorial veto and also avoided increased taxes by taking the funds from the teachers and school bond retirement reserves rather than from the state "rainy day" fund.

Governor Goodwin Knight had stated since the session's outset that he would veto any "raid" on the rainy day fund.

Harry Nethery, business superintendent of the Walnut Creek School District, said that the bill would mean an estimated $744,000 for his district. This is $86,000 more than the Walnut Creek district would have received before the conference committee changed the bill's equalization ratio.

MT. DIABLO Unified School District would receive in the neighborhood of $640,000, according to Superintendent James Dent. Dent said that of this amount approximately $200,000 would be used for the general budget, while $440,000 would be used for teacher salary increases. Dent emphasized as did most school district officials in the

Orinda Association Board Delays Definite Decision

Most of the delegates to the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee indicated Monday night that their local organizations favor acquisition of the 10½ acres of Pine Grove land now owned by Pacific Intermountain Express Company, for community center purposes.

However, the Orinda Association Board of Directors, meeting the next night, made no definite decision on the matter. President Gene Estes explained that other factors had to be determined before any action for purchase could be instituted.

Both the Civic Affairs meeting Monday night and the board meeting Tuesday night were at Orinda School District.

ESTES EXPRESSED gratification of the board over the fact that the 20 organizations represented the previous night at the Civic Affairs session had given serious thought to the problem.

A number of Orinda Association directors attended the Civic Affairs meeting, which was conducted by Vice-Chairman Ross Van Dyke, in the absence of Chairman Ralph C. Hall.

Financing of possible purchase of the acreage from PIE was recognized as a major problem by the Civic Affairs delegates.

OPPOSITION of the Lincoln Estates group to acquiring the land was expressed by Ramona DuBois, delegate of the group.

She reported that she had contacted all of her group's officers and directors and some of these favored any sort of financing for buying of the Pine Grove parcel.

She added that some had even told her that if the Orinda Association undertakes purchase of the land, they would drop their individual memberships in the Orinda Association.

BUT THE GENERAL feeling expressed at the Civic Affairs meeting was that such purchase was desirable and that financing could perhaps best be achieved through some form of taxation—by a special service district or by an incorporated Orinda.

One factor holding up any decision by the Orinda Association board, Estes explained Tuesday night, was the fact that the association and the Orinda Community Church were making efforts to study possible sale of some of the present association-owned Orinda Community Center land to the church.

Bob Walpole reported that he and Marvin Baker had met with Kirk Miles and Roy Clark of the church in an effort to agree on an appraiser who could be retained to appraise the association land.

Walpole indicated that progress toward such agreement was satisfactory.

THE ASSOCIATION board recently declared that the Pine Grove site "is eminently well suited for community purposes" and "should be considered for possible purchase."

At the same time it agreed with its planning committee that "the Orinda Association should continue to own the land in the Community Center area" and that some association property should be seriously considered as being suitable for sale to the church "if suitable other property available for purchase by the association can be found."

Estes told the Civic Affairs group that PIE had indicated it would be willing to sell its Pine Grove land for the original $106,000 purchase price it had paid to East Bay Municipal Utility District.

ANOTHER FACET of community planning came up at the board meeting Tuesday night when Dick Bartle, chairman of the association's planning committee, announced that his committee will meet at 8 o'clock next Monday night with members of the county planning staff at the County Administration Building in Martinez.

Subject of this conference, he said, will be the Orinda master plan, which has never been adopted by the County Planning Commission.

Bartle invited association board members to attend the Monday night conference.

THE DIRECTORS declined to act on a proposed resolution against the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, as requested by the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

In doing this, the directors stated that the transit problem was one requiring study. They recommended that both sides of the controversy be aired before the Civic Affairs Committee.

Hearing Monday On Dispute Over Orinda Lots

Hearings are scheduled Monday before Superior Judge Homer Patterson in Martinez on a permanent injunction which could postpone sale of 150 Oak Springs lots.

The owner of the allegedly substandard Orinda lots, Attorney Nathan Gray, has declared his intention of opposing the injunction.

THE TRACT WHERE the 150 lots are located is between the present Oak Springs tract and Encinas De Moraga behind the Willows restaurant.

Both the Oak Springs Homeowners Association and the Encinas residents have opposed sale of the lots, which were advertised in a daily newspaper as priced from "$375 to $1,375."

A temporary injunction filed by Deputy District Attorney Matt Walker prevented sale of the lots last weekend, although more than 1000 persons inspected the sites.

The names of those desiring to purchase were left on file with salesmen.

THE INJUNCTION was filed after a party of county officials led by Supervisor Mel Nielsen inspected the allegedly substandard sites last Friday.

The lots are reportedly underzoned for the 6000 square foot area zoning, but Gray has claimed that the original subdivision map was filed in 1926, prior to present zoning laws.

At a Tuesday night meeting of the Orinda Association's Board of Directors, talk of a possible compromise was discussed.

ONE PROPOSAL that was considered involved the combining of various-shaped lots into parcels conforming to present zoning standards.

At the same time the board that he objected to the method in which the matter of the lots had been brought to his attention, claiming that no one had seen him beforehand.

The board pointed out that the county, not the association, had sought and obtained the temporary injunction based on citizen protests.

A LETTER WAS SENT from the board to Nielsen, thanking the county for its prompt action in behalf of the complaints.

Before seeking the injunction, the county officials inspected the entire subdivision, including grading, and an allegedly leaking septic tank.

Trustees Slate Special Meeting

A special meeting of the Orinda Union School District Board of Trustees has been announced by District Superintendent Joseph Sheaff.

The meeting will be Tuesday, 8 p.m. in the library of the Pine Grove School. Purpose of the meeting is to review the tentative budget for the next fiscal year, according to Sheaff.

Orindan Wins Eagle Scout Award

Robert Bowles Jr., 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bowles of Orchard Road was presented with his Eagle award, the highest honor in scouting, at the final court of honor of the year for Troop 200 of Orinda, which was held at the Community Church last Wednesday evening.

Receiving their life awards were Steve Smith, Richard Bowles and Jay Nutt. Winning star awards were Steve Baker, John Bishop, Tom Hutton, Don Phillips, Roger McCosker, Mike Sorem, and Larry Switzer.

First Class badges were given to Tom Booth, Walter Coursen, and Chris Harnett, Paul Rieger, Bob Rudolph, Alan Sorrick, Bill Smith and Ken White.

Hams Now Hosts To Easterners

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eialand and children, Judy and Douglas of Memphis, Tennessee, are the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ham of 15 Normandy Lane, Orinda.

Mrs. Ham, Mrs. Eialand's sister, plans later in the month to motor east to visit relatives in Little Rock, Arkansas, Dayton, Ohio, and Memphis, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. White of Newark, New Jersey are arriving in Orinda June 24 for a visit with their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. William A. Borrie of 29 El Gavilan Road.

Sun Offers Free Teen Want Ads

Again, The Sun offers to all teen-agers of the area the opportunity of placing free work wanted advertisements in the classified sections of The Sun and Sun Shopping News.

Any teen ager may place a 10-word classified ad at any one of the Sun's offices for a two-week period. The ad will appear in the Concord Sun, Pleasant Hill Sun, Walnut Creek Sun, Lafayette Sun, Orinda Sun and Sun Shopping News.

The rules are as follows:

The teen ager must appear in person at one of the Sun's offices: 1000 Oak Hill Road, Lafayette, 1320 Locust Street, Walnut Creek or 2125 Salvo Street, Concord.

Ads must be submitted in writing prior to 3 p.m. Monday for publication in the Wednesday edition of the Shopping News and Friday edition of the Sun.

Included in the ad should be the name, age, and type of position the teen ager seeks.

The Sun office in Lafayette is open Monday through Saturday; in Walnut Creek, Monday through Saturday and in Concord Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday.

Ads may be placed any day of the week. Telephone ads will not be taken. The ad must be brought in by the person placing the ad or by a parent.

Employers are requested to contact the individual at the telephone number listed in the ad and not to call the Sun for information regarding the individual advertisements.

Hundreds of teen agers have already taken advantage of the Sun's free work wanted classified ads in past years and found many jobs to keep them busy all summer. Many of the positions found by the teen agers helped them decide on lifetime careers.

Some worked in engineering offices, others for contractors, girls found positions as typists, file clerks and similar positions which led to year round work and positions after graduation.

Many geared their school programs to the career in which they had worked during the summer months.

If you know a teen ager inform him or her of this offer by the Sun and have the teen ager submit the ad by Monday afternoon before 3 p.m.

A list of students appears in this issue of The Sun as an aid to employers. In future weeks all teen agers seeking work will appear in work wanted (section 27) columns of the classified section.

Of course, The Sun cannot take responsibility for claims made in the advertisements. This offer is merely another public service feature of The Sun.

Young Pup Loves Kittens Why? Let's Investigate . . .

By NORMAN COLBY

Kittens, less than a month old, need a lot of attention from mother. But at the Albert Gilbert household at 2496 Warren Road, Walnut Creek, Clementine, Calico, Petunia and Matilda have no mother. She was killed.

So that's where the Gilbert's eight-month-old puppy, "Lady," comes in.

Daughter Evelyn Gilbert, 8, was afraid that Lady would harm her orphaned kittens when dog and cats were first introduced in the back yard a couple of weeks ago.

Six year-old Jimmy Gilbert wasn't too enthusiastic, either. He couldn't see why his dog would want to associate with "any old cats."

So, the whole family was surprised when Lady, a cross between a collie and a shepherd, struck up a friendship with the orphans. She now performs such chores as licking them clean (kittens like to be clean, but when very young can't do the job themselves, and escorting them about the confines of their back yard house.

It's a touching sight to see Lady, still a "juvenile" herself, assuming the proud standard of motherhood as far as Calico, Clementine, Matilda and Petunia are concerned.

The feeding of the kittens is aided by Evelyn. It includes administration of miniature nursing bottles, loaded with formula milk and dextrose. The baby felines, born the Saturday before Declaration Day, like it.

Their arrival made Evelyn especially happy. Her mother was surprised to hear her say, "Oh, goody, now I'm a grandmother!" As for Jimmy, he's still not sure that his "Lady" should be undertaking guardian responsibilities at such an early age.

The Gilberts have an old Tom cat too, but Tom seems to be confused about Lady. Tom has heard about the age-old enmity between the species, but he's reluctant to pass the news along to the pup.

Seems that Tom is afraid he'd get stuck with the rearing! Or worse!

"We live on that Boulevard Way racetrack," Mrs. Gilbert commented.

"Mitten, the kittens' mother, was just one of many run over by cars on that street."

"In the past two years, we have lost four cats and two dogs on Boulevard Way. Our neighbors next door have lost two dogs, and the neighbors across the street lost their dog three days after Lady's mother was killed there," she added.

Perhaps Mrs. Gilbert's final remark provided the key to the friendship between Lady and the kittens.

Aren't they all orphans? Didn't Lady also lose her mother due to a careless motorist on Boulevard Way?

Could mutual tragedy overcome the traditional lack of trust between dog and cat?

SERIAL NUMBERS

Automobile owners should make a list of serial numbers, trade names and other identification marks on tires, car radios and other parts that may be stolen. This will assist in the recovery of the articles, if they are stolen.

Girl Says No To Strangers In Convertible

Invitation to get into the maroon convertible car made by two men were refused last Friday evening by nine-year-old Shirley Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Thomas, as she was returning from a Brownie meeting.

Shirley instead went to her home at 2084 North Main Street and called the police officers. She said that the two men had an elderly woman in the back seat, but the woman said nothing. The men said, "Get in and we'll give you a ride to Walnut Creek" and then they urged, "Come on, this old woman in the back seat doesn't know us."

Shirley kept to route along Jones Road, and the men drove off. One man had a crew cut, and the other had a grey cap which looked like a hunter's cap, the girl said.

Police Chief Leigh Brilliant said that a new pamphlet warning children against getting into cars with strange men is being issued to all children in the Walnut Creek School District.

It is the story of "Sherry" and her friend "Jimmy" and the troubles that beset them when they accept a ride with a stranger.

Police Accuse Concord Newsy Of Bookmaking

FIVE on bail after a surprise Wednesday arrest, is Milford Nichols, 49, raided by Concord police for allegedly running a bookmaking establishment.

The owner of Nichols Newstand on 2051 Salvio Street was booked on four felony counts of accepting bets and running a bookmaking establishment for betting on horses.

LED BY POLICE Chief Ron Orin, a four-officer raiding party arrested Nichols shortly before noon on Wednesday.

According to Orin, the officers uncovered evidence in a small cigar box showing that Nichols was collecting bets. Sheets of paper with the names of both horses and bettors were found in the box.

Orin said that evidence of Nichols' bookmaking activities were first uncovered by an officer who placed bets last Friday and again on Saturday.

A CRIMINAL complaint was signed against Nichols by Orin on Wednesday morning and a search warrant issued by Judge John Garaventa.

The raid was the first in Concord in seven or eight years, according to the chief.

He said that Nichols had stated that the bookmaking establishment "was a one-man outfit, with no other persons involved."

THE POLICE CHIEF said that he had no knowledge of any other bookmaking establishments operating within the Concord city limits.

No other arrests are planned by the department. Orin said that the names of bettors were generally nicknames "which could be difficult to track down."

The contents of Nichols' cigar box reportedly contained about $50 worth of bets, mostly $2 or $5 wagers.

THE NOON RAIDING party, which obviously surprised the alleged bookmaker, included Orin, Lt. Sam Rogers, Sgt. William Blackburn and Officer Carl Vick-nair.

The officers used an ultra-violet light to detect marks on the money with which the Concord officer had placed his bets.

McGuigan Show Will Include Aquatic Stars

A star-studded cast of aquatic performers will exhibit their wares at the Frank McGuigan Swim School, 1075 Carol Lane, Lafayette, Sunday.

Headed by Ann Curtis, former Olympic champion and holder of numerous national and world records, the cast will include Marshall Wayne, Olympic platform diving champion; Betty Robinson, star of some of the greatest professional water shows in the country; Norman Hanley, famous clown of the San Francisco Olympic Club, and many others. The show will start at 2 p.m.

Cub Pack 225

Roberts Park was the site of the annual picnic of Orinda Cub Pack 225 June 8.

Cub Master Tevis Thompson introduced the following Council members for the next year: Cub Master, Bill Henning; Assistants, Andy Anderson, Earl Vicars, and Andy O'Brien; Committee Chairman, Alan Thor; Treasurer, Axel Odelberg; Secretary, Virginia Andersen; Den Mother, Advisor, Lucile Yriberri; Records, Jeanne Vicars; Activities, Howard Gravelle; and Membership, Brooks Gardner.

Gordon Gravelle was welcomed into the Pack as Bobcat.

CARE TO MAKE A WAGER on the horses? According to Concord Police Chief Ron Orin, left, the place to do it was at Nichols' Newstand at 2051 Salvio Street. A four-man raiding party reportedly uncovered evidence that Milford Nichols, center, was running a bookmaking establishment in his store. Orin said that an officer had twice placed bets at the store using marked money. Looking for the marks with an ultraviolet lamp is Lt. Sam Rogers. —Sun photo

Scout Salute

The girls of Brownie Troop 155 held their "Brownie Fly-up Ceremony" recently in the all-purpose room of the Glorietta School. Relatives and friends were invited.

Those taking part in the impressive ceremony were Diann Beconcini, Lois Dimpfel, Lynn Deering, Judy Edwards, Sybil Lee Ellgas, Pamela Guiffre, Kathy Lanzarotti, Marjorie Parsons, Jane Richard, Calene Schaefer, Beverly Stillson and the Brownie leaders, Mrs. Emerson Dimpfel and Mrs. Robert Beconcini.

Girl Scout Troop 262 and Brownie Troop 111 also participated in the program.

Refreshments were served immediately following the ceremony.

Troop 131

Brownie Troop 131 held "fly-up" ceremonies at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church May 24.

Mrs. James Dupuis, troop leader during the past year, presented the scarves and wings, after which they were pinned by Mrs. Stanley Thompson, who will be the new leader, assisted by three intermediate Girl Scouts, Clarine Dawson, Nancy Guinther and Mary Ellen Grab.

The girls who flew up were Caroline Caldwell, Jill Comerford, Patsy Dildine, Nancy Dupuis, Susan Gregg, Janet Hinds, Christine Lerch, Toni Markus, Claudia McCann, Jo Anne Mossotto, Lee Thomas, Joyce Thompson, Arlene Winkler and Pamela York.

Mrs. Dick Dildine and Mrs. Harold Caldwell were in charge of refreshments.

On May 27, as a final treat, the girls went to the Orinda Post Office, where Postmaster Laura Mallory showed them how the Post Office functions.

Troop 12

Girl Scout Troop 12 of Orinda had a progressive dinner party for its final meeting of the year June 6.

The "Dumb Clucks" Patrol made all the plans and purchased the food for the main course, which was served at the home of Mrs. Frank Walton, 177 Rheem Boulevard.

The dessert was planned, prepared and served by the "Self-aiders" Patrol at the home of Mrs. Nuel Smith, 172 Glorietta Boulevard.

Mrs. Wencel E. Smith and Mrs. Claude Maehler are the leaders of the troop. The girls include Susanne Harrer, Pamela Herlihy, Becky Thorne, Wendy Maehler, Suzanne Mann, Cheryl Messersmith, Sandra Mittell, Laurie Nilmeier, Fran Pettler, Barbara Smith, Gladys Smith and Diane Walton.

Troop 178

White carnations symbolizing each of the Girl Scout laws were carried by the members of Orinda Troop 178 during Fly-up ceremonies June 7 at the home of Mrs. Donald Scarff. The seven Brownies to intermediate Scouts, was initiated with a flag ceremony.

Those taking part in the ceremony were Diann Beconcini, Lois Dimpfel, Lynn Deering, Judy Edwards, Sybil Lee Ellgas, Pamela Guiffre, Kathy Lanzarotti, Marjorie Parsons, Jane Richard, Calene Schaefer, Beverly Stillson and the Brownie leaders, Mrs. Emerson Dimpfel and Mrs. Robert Beconcini.

Girl Scout Troop 262 and Brownie Troop 111 also participated in the program.

Refreshments were served immediately following the ceremony.

Troop 313

Brownie Troop 313 held its Fly-Up Ceremony May 27 at the home of Mrs. Gerald Tesman, 120 Canyon Road, Orinda. Staged in the garden, the Brownies went through an arch made of greenery at the end of the pool.

Girls participating in this event were Mary Ann Long, Pat Hawkins, Jo Anne Dowdson, Cynthia Sax, Judy Hauer, Karen Bromley, and Karen Johnson. Two Girl Scouts, Deana Kersten and Joyce Bailey, led the services. Mrs. Tesman is the Brownie leader, assisted by Mrs. George Hauer.

Day at Camp

Members of Orinda Brownie Troops 111 and 155 recently had their first taste of camp life, spending day at Twin Canyon Camp on Springhill Road in Lafayette.

The girls prepared their own meal over an open fire and spent the rest of the time practicing trail-blazing signs.

The following girls participated in the outing:

Linda Pankonin, Carol Patterson, Melanie Waterman, Barbee Bascom, Barbara Cattalia, Christine Bridwell, Kathleen Fisher, Rose Mary Labelle, Diane Benconcini, Lois Dimpfel, Lynn Deering, Sybil Ellgas, Judy Edwards, Beverly Stillson and Pamela Guiffre.

Leaders accompanying the girls from Troop 111 were Mrs. Ed Patterson and Mrs. Leonard Pankonin, and from Troop 155, Mrs. B. Guiffre and Mrs. Emerson Dimpfel.

Fly-up

Brownie Wings were received by girls from Orinda Troops 6 and 303, five from Moraga Troop 89 and one from Moraga Troop 23 when they officially became Intermediate Girl Scouts at a Fly-up Ceremony held in the presence of their parents at Glorietta all-purpose room recently.

Girl Scout Troop 203, Brownie Troops 50, 174 and 206 from Orinda and Brownie Troops 89 and 23 from Moraga were present to help with the ceremony.

Fly-ups from Troop 6 were Deborah Baird, Constance DeLaveaga, Vandra Goranson, Ronelle Johannes, Bonnie Kinsir, Nancy Knollin, Catherine Lassater, Jo Ann Lewis, Barbara Nelson, Melanie Reitzel, Lori Soles, Judith Spangler, Christine Thomas, Julie Wagner and Susan LaPlant.

Those flying-up from Troop 303 were Carol Baptista, Kathy Chase, Barbara Canfield, Nancy Koker, Karen Mitchell, Marta Morgensen, Maralyn Singer, Connie Spangler, Candice Stanley, Ann Walker, Pamela Walsh, Carolyn Young, Sandra LaRue, Judith Ann Guibert and Janet Lee Carter.

The Moraga girls flying-up were Elizabeth Cirio from Troop 23 and Kitty Cole, Jane Davis, Dawn Dressler, Carolyn Lund and Diana Gay Rohrer from Troop 89.

Yes, It Really Pays to Shop in Orinda

An Editorial

Changes in the shopping habits of Orinda residents are apparent these days. More and more people are doing more buying at home.

It has been well-established for some time that local shopping makes simple economic sense. Even before becoming initiated to other aspects of "country living," new suburbanites realize that it is no longer logical to run to downtown metropolitan areas for shopping needs.

We are now to the point where shopping at home is attractive on its own right, not just because it's the only alternative to the long drive of five, ten or more miles over heavily congested highways.

There are more and more people who have come to realize that they would prefer to buy in Orinda stores, even if all other things were equal — if there were no long drive to the "big city."

In general there seem to be two big reasons.

In the first place shopping here is different. "Country living" means spacious homes on quiet streets where children can play; but it also means a casual relaxed tempo of life, in neighborhood and social activities and in shopping as well.

The men and women who own and operate the stores in our town are themselves people who live in the country. They know their customers and their needs and are in business to satisfy them.

One of the traditional charms of Orinda has been its pace and the familiarity which exists between residents and businessmen.

Secondly, shopping at home is attractive now because it offers more than it has ever before.

Merchants have been able to refurbish and expand, offering more and better selections.

Once a housewife with urban shopping habits could not have been satisfied to shop in Orinda, but she now finds a variety of responsible stores offering many kinds of merchandise.

And shopping at home is altogether healthy, because our merchants are basically important to Orinda.

They pay a big share of the taxes which buy police protection, schools, fire protection, roads, sanitation and utilities.

We too often forget that a part of our expenditures come back to us when the businessman pays taxes — but only if that merchant is in Orinda.

Furthermore, it is the merchant who is regularly called upon for contributions to welfare and service fund drives. It is the merchant who, through the chamber of commerce, community and service clubs, helps to solve community problems.

The trend is toward more shopping at home, but there are still those who have not acquainted themselves with their local stores. Some do not yet recognize the positive reasons for buying in the community in which they live.

It is to their own benefit and to the benefit of Orinda that they start now to patronize local business.

Barrows Honored By Willamette U

Dr. Thomas N. Barrows of Orinda, member of the University of California faculty, was conferred the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature at the annual commencement ceremonies at Willamette University, Salem, Oregon, June 2.

Dr. Barrows served as a teacher and vice principal at the Lincoln School of Columbia University prior to accepting a position as director of the Woodmere Academy in New York. In 1934 he joined the faculty at Lawrence College as dean, and in 1937 he was advanced to presidency of the college.

He was called to serve as director of the Commission on Accrediting Service Experience by the American Council on Education in 1945 and served until 1951.

He was also guest speaker at the Willamette commencement services, where his son, David, was graduated with a bachelor's degree.

Back Alimony Suit Is Filed

Suit for $17,846 back alimony and child support payments has been filed in Martinez by Mrs. Charlotte E. Messersmith, 344 Glorietta Boulevard, Orinda, against her former husband, Ray L. Messersmith of San Francisco.

They were divorced in Nevada in 1954.

In her suit Mrs. Messersmith alleged that she was awarded $100 a week alimony and $75 a week for child support, which, she charged, Messersmith had failed to pay.

CAR LIGHTS

Taking a vacation trip soon? when you have your car checked be sure to include an inspection of the lights—headlights, tail-lights, license plate light, stop-light, and turn signal lights. It's important to have good illumination when you drive around town but on the highway it's a matter of life and death.

Mrs. Ferro Recovering After Delicate Operation

There was a special kind of family reunion this week end at 457 Valente Court, Lafayette. Center of the reunion was the "new" Mrs. Celia Ferro, 46, one of less than a dozen people known to have a tumor removed from her heart.

Welcoming her back to "living like a normal human being" were her husband, John, and their two sons, Raymond 26, and Edward, 20.

Mrs. Ferro, home after ten days in Merritt Hospital in Oakland, is looking forward to keeping house, going to town when she takes a notion, and cooking polenta by a recipe that has been in the family for a long time.

"I used to be up five minutes and then have to lie down," she says. "I was afraid to go down town—I had keeled over a couple of times."

The tumor, the size of an egg, was removed from the left auricle of Mrs. Ferro's heart on May 27 by a thoracic surgeon on the Merritt Hospital staff.

The temperature of the patient's body was reduced by hypothermia, or ice bath, to about 85 degrees Fahrenheit for the surgery.

When cooled, the body requires less oxygen, and can do without blood for the period the heart must be stilled for surgery. Mrs. Ferro's circulation was maintained artificially by massage for almost an hour.

In Merritt Hospital two days before her operation, Mrs. Ferro read the newspaper story about Mrs. Alfred Ansara of San Francisco whose heart tumor was removed with the aid of a heart lung machine.

Instead of being alarmed when she read that Mrs. Ansara's heart had been stilled, Mrs. Ferro drew courage from the story. "I thought if she went through it, I certainly could."

And she did.

Meeting Called To Plan Aid to Transit District

With the announced purpose of taking steps to form "an active committee" to work with the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, Robert F. Guichard has arranged for a meeting at his home, 1190 Glen Road, Lafayette, at 8 p.m. next Tuesday.

Guichard said he has invited the following to send representatives: The cities of Walnut Creek and Concord; the Walnut Creek Area, Concord and Lafayette Chambers of Commerce; the Orinda Association; the Contra Costa County Commuters Association; the Pleasant Hill Civic Council; the Lafayette Improvement Association; the San Ramon Valley Improvement Association; and the Walden Improvement Association.

PRESENT at the meeting will be Robert K. Barber, representative of Ward 1 of the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, according to Guichard. Barber is a vice-president of the district.

Guichard, a director of the Lafayette Improvement Association, has during the past several weeks arranged for recent appearances of Transit District speakers before the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee and the Lafayette Improvement Association.

Meanwhile, opposition to the Transit District has been pursued by the Contra Costa Transit Council.

REFERRING to this dispute, Guichard stated this week: "The Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District seems to be solving its problems. It seems probable that we in Contra Costa County will soon be part of an active two-county transit district."

"With this in mind," he added, "this meeting is being arranged for next Tuesday and representatives of civic and governmental agencies of Contra Costa County."

"THE PURPOSE of this meeting is to discuss all information the Transit District has at present, in order that a better understanding may be had, generally, of what is proposed."

"At this meeting there will be proposed the formation of an active committee to work with Barber and the Transit Authority, keeping in mind the interests of Contra Costa County."

Folk Dancers Hold Meeting

Acalanes Folk Dancers used a graduation dance for their monthly dance held at Danville Legion Hall, Danville, Saturday.

The dance programs were rolled and tied to represent graduation diplomas and the hall was decorated like school days.

Special guests were 10 couples from the Walnut Creek beginners classes, sponsored by the Diablo Consul of Folk Dancers.

During intermission this group was presented with special graduation hats and a speech by Club President Len Clark.

For refreshments, a lunch bag was presented to each person with sandwiches, fried chicken, and cookies.

The committee included George and Mary Hartwig, Dick and Margery Banwell and Mac and Irene McNichols. Also a special thanks to Glenn and Reva Ward from El Cerrito for calling the squares.

Supervisors Ask Public Defender Need Established

Desmond Teeter, county administrator, was ordered by Board of Supervisors to determine whether to establish the post of public defender for the county.

The action took place Tuesday in Martinez. Teeter informed the board that an additional $8000 would be needed to defray the cost of attorney's fees who took cases of indigent defendants.

Approximately $9000 was budgeted last year for attorney's fees. In an earlier investigation of the need of a public defender several years ago, the board ruled that it would be cheaper to pay the attorney's on a per case basis rather than establish a full time position.

Lure of Classroom is Too Strong for Most Rankins

Sheldon Rankin, Walnut Creek School District superintendent, was justifiably proud to witness the awarding of a Ph.D. in educational psychology to his son Richard, 25, at University of California ceremonies last weekend.

Richard had already received his Bachelor of Arts and Masters Degree in educational psychology at the university. He has packed a lot of learning into a few years.

BUT TO HAVE his relatives succeed in the educational field is nothing new for Sheldon Rankin.

His father, the late Walter Z. Rankin was a school trustee for the Benicia Unified District for 30 years until 1944, and he was succeeded by Sheldon's brother, Raymond, who still holds the post.

Sheldon's mother, Sara, who died last July, was a former Kansas elementary school teacher. She taught in a little one room school house in a rural area near Beloit. That very school house is now a museum piece at the Knotts Berry Farm in Southern California.

That's not all—his wife, Marion, is a teacher in the Lafayette School District—has been for about 10 years.

HERE'S MORE—the younger Rankin son, Edward, is a senior at the College of Pacific, majoring in philosophy. But he has enrolled for the summer session this year, and most of his course are in the educational department.

Footnote—Sheldon's sister, Irma, received her credentials from Cal for teaching, but instead married a minister, and now living in Boston.

Why are all the Rankins so close to the teaching profession? Speaking for himself, Sheldon told the Sun, "Well, dad thought that it was the thing we all should do."

The top administrator of the local school district has been in the profession for 29 years, and became superintendent here in 1944. He and Mrs. Rankin reside at 43 Dora Avenue, Walnut Creek.

More Problems for Two-Year Upper Housing Authority Division College Measure Defeated

Commissioners of the Contra Costa County Housing Authority found new problems confronting them at their Wednesday night meeting in Martinez.

The authority which has been charged with irregularities by Fred Anthon, ousted maintenance supervisor, the Contra Costa Grand Jury is studying its operations and the Federal Government has an investigator making inquiries into complaints and allegations, has now the problem of a $700 shortage in the books of Las Delitas project in North Richmond.

THE CHAIRMAN of the commission, Gerould Gill and executive director Ronald Howard were in disagreement whether or not the $700 was missing.

U. S. Attorney Lloyd Burke told the press in San Francisco that the entire report made by J. J. Sullivan, investigator had been turned over to the U. S. Department of Justice.

Howard was quoted as saying that he denied the shortage since it had been repaid. "By the time the shortage had been discovered it had already been repaid," said Howard.

BURKE COMMENTED that the Las Delitas matter was something new and had not been brought up in the Sullivan report of March. The Sullivan report was forwarded to Federal Housing Authority Headquarters in Washington.

In other action the board elected George Weise, long-time commissioner, to the post of vice chairman replacing James Woods who resigned recently.

Gill was authorized to fly to Washington for a meeting of public housing officials.

The authority will eliminate 73 low rent units in Knox Park and voted to protest to the Public Utilities Commission efforts of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company to obtain permission to raise and lower rates as fuel costs fluctuate.

Gill commented that the authority requested resignation of a Las Delitas official on grounds of engaging in political campaigns.

Borough Meeting Slated Wednesday At PH Rec Center

A borough committee from 13 communities will meet again next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center to discuss "the general idea of borough government."

A letter sent by J. B. McFarland, chairman of the borough committee of the Central Contra Costa Community Council, to various civic and improvement associations urges organizational attendance at the meeting.

"EVERY ONE on the committee has at some time been fully involved in the affairs of his community up to the consideration of... will incorporation of each individual small community be enough," the letter said.

"The committee was completely unanimous in the decision that the borough system has some very strong points, particularly in regards to overlapping districts, lower costs of, and higher calibre of administration without relinquishing local control over character of each community."

The letter said, however, that the committee does not desire to make "any firm decisions" but only wishes to "explore" the possibilities of the borough form of government.

Realtors' Sales Are $1,473,000

Sales volume for the Contra Costa Real Estate Board for May this year was $1,473,000, compared with $1,761,688 for the same month last year.

Total sales numbered 83, with 53 cooperative sales.

Speaker at the Mart breakfast Monday was to be Martha Hood. Her topic was Personality Development through More Effective Speaking.

It was announced the Oakland Real Estate Board will give an examination review course beginning tomorrow. Instructor will be Adrian Thiel, Oakland attorney who specializes in real estate law.

The review will cover requirements for first and second examinations for brokers and salesmen. It will be given at the Oakland Real Estate Board auditorium from 9 to 12 noon for eight successive Saturdays.

Monument Leads In Women's Pin Loop Contests

Monument Catering Service widened their margin in the Women's Summer Handicap Bowling League this week, winning three out of four Tuesday night at Monument Bowl to boost their season mark to 13 wins and three losses.

Five teams are tied for second with 10-6 marks.

Willow Pass Laundromat took four from Johnson's Ant Control for the week's best record.

Jesse Enos of the Old Hangout shot a 200 game in a 524 series for the best game and series of the week. Other high series were by Donna Cooper, Hangout, 511; Larry Johns, Team 14, 507; and Daisy Layman, McPetridge Motors, 503.

Governor Signs Anti-Net Bill

All commercial shad and salmon fishing in the tidal waters upstream from Carquinez Bridge will end September 27 according to a bill signed into law Saturday by Governor Goodwin Knight.

The bill was fought to the bitter end by the Contra Costa County board of supervisors and state legislators who appealed to Knight last Saturday not to sign the measure.

"The bill," said Knight, "was passed by an overwhelming vote of the Legislature responding to the request of many thousands of sportsmen as well as commercial fishermen."

Multiple Adoption System Approved For School Texts

School boards will be allowed to adopt two or more textbooks rather than the single state-selected text according to terms of a bill passed this week by the State Legislature.

Assembly Bill 4085 is now before Governor Goodwin Knight along with another bill passed last Saturday, AB 4088, which makes the failure to use a prescribed text the sole responsibility of the principal and districts superintendents.

PRESENTLY, the school teachers are guilty of a misdemeanor for using other than the prescribed book.

Both bills are authored by Assemblyman Donald Doyle and arise from investigations conducted last year by a committee headed by the Lafayette Republican.

The investigations started as a result of protests by Contra Costa County parent-eacher groups who objected to the practice of using a single state-selected text for a course.

FOR DOYLE and the Assembly education committee, the measures represent an important change in the present system.

Doyle has previously referred to both bills as "sound improvement" and the best that could be passed on the subject without a constitutional amendment.

AB 4085 ALSO CHANGES the adoption period for textbooks from eight to four years with two renewals of adoption possible.

Twelve years will be the maximum adoption period for any text, including renewals.

A delay that sometimes means as much as three months to some districts is eliminated by the bill which would allow warehousing of textbooks in certain areas.

The legislation was strongly supported by the California Teachers Association, the State Department of Education and the International Typographical Union.

Linnet Shop to Have Vacation, Play Clothes

Continuing with their sales of summer cottons, vacation and play clothes, members of Linnet Auxiliary to Mt. Diablo Therapy Center will run their shop at 1547 East Street, Walnut Creek, today, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and tomorrow, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Because of generous gifts of summer clothing, shelves and racks have a very attractive supply which will be offered at reduced prices to clear the space for fall goods.

The aim of the Linnet Auxiliary is to raise money for current expenses of the Therapy Center and continually raise the standard of merchandise offered at the Thrift Shop.

The shop will continue to welcome donations of new and good used wearing apparel and household articles during each open day.

The shop will be staffed by Mesdames Chester Hook, Frederick Mulvaney and E. B. Radford, today. The shop will be operated by the Junior Linnetts, tomorrow. Mrs. Richard Strong, chairman, has selected Mrs. Robert de Chen and Mrs. Paul Cortese to assist her.

Efforts to Save Infant Girl Fail

Mrs. Natalie Russell of 1088 Leland Drive, Walnut Creek, summoned help when she found her infant daughter, Mary Louise, unable to breathe.

The family had just moved from Grant's Pass, Ore., and Mr. Russell was bringing the last of the belongings from Oregon when the tragedy occurred.

Members of the Lafayette Fire Department answered the call, but efforts with the resuscitator were of no avail.

Mrs. Russell told a physician called to the scene that the infant was alright when checked at midnight. But she found her with a quilt pulled over the head, and face discolored at 9 a.m.

New Rheem Theater Opens With Top Show

The beautiful new Rheem Theater on Park Street, Rheem, opened with a gala program Wednesday.

At this special program there were stellar stage and screen attractions.

The stage show included Del Courtney of television fame, who is an Orinda resident, as master of ceremonies; the O'Dells, a balancing troupe, presenting artistry in motion; Stagg McMann, harmonica virtuoso; the four King Sisters, Capital recording stars, in singing numbers; Glen Haywood, combining comedy with magic and ventriloquism, and Lyle Bardo and his Band, in rhythmic musical offerings.

ON THE SCREEN was "The Little Hut," in Technicolor, starring Ava Gardner, Stewart Granger and David Niven, and "The Vintage," starring Mel Ferrer and Pier Angeli.

The stage show is for the opening night only. The screen show will continue for one week, and will be changed Wednesday.

Owned by Donald Rheem, the spacious new Rheem Theater is managed by Ben Randall, who also is manager of the Orinda Theater.

THE RHEEM Theater has a seating capacity of 1000—and all the seats are rocking-chair type seats. Aisles and spaces between rows are wide, assuring maximum comfort in getting to and from seats.

Comfort is also assured by a new type of air-conditioning.

THERE IS PARKING space for over 500 cars.

Directly across the street from the new Rheem Valley Fire Station, the luxurious new theater is conveniently located in the Rheem Shopping area near St. Mary's College.

It is easily reached by families throughout Central Contra Costa County.

THE RHEEM THEATER will be open weekdays at 6:30 p.m., with the show starting at 7 p.m. On Sunday the shows will start at 2 p.m. and will continue through the evening.

Church Night Potluck Will Be Wednesday

The annual Family Church Night Potluck Supper will be held at Fellowship Hall of Orinda Community Church at 6:30 p.m. next Wednesday.

A church-wide invitation has been extended, with the objective of achieving better acquaintance with church members, clubs, the Sunday School and the Women's Guild.

Reservations may be made through Grace Campbell, CL 4-3190, or Mary Monosmith, CL 4-3849.

The 9:15 service will be a service to which parents can bring children of all ages and will be

Troop 243

Four patrols of Lafayette Boy Scout Troop 243 participated in the 1957 Mt. Diablo Council Camporee at Camp Stoneman.

Under the leadership of Scoutmaster Emerson Denham, 678 Jennie Court, and Clarence Laney, 3422 McEllen Court, Lafayette, the four patrols won four award ribbons, two first place awards in division contests, and one third place award in the run-off contest between divisions.

Not on the Camporee agenda, but nevertheless also successfully accomplished, was the killing of four rattlesnakes. The first snake was sighted by Explorer scouts who signalled to camp for aid. Scoutmaster Denham investigated, and immediately identified the snake as a rattler. He thrust a spade through the snake, severing it into two parts.

Three more snakes were killed in a similar manner.

Boy Scout officers of the troop are Senior Patrol leader Munroe Denham, Scribe Russel Hartley and Quartermaster Mike Laney.

Patrol leaders are Hawks, Gary Koch; Wolves, Mike Spellman; Rattlesnakes, Bill Kirkham; and Buffaloes, Pat Frederick.

Margaret Van Cise Honored at College

Margaret Rae Van Cise of Lafayette has been chosen for membership in the Oregon State College chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, national honor society in education.

Mrs. Van Cise, a senior in home economics education, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram O. Roe of 893 Acalanes Road. She is a 1953 graduate of Acalanes high school.

She has been named the outstanding home economics student for 1957 at Oregon State College. Mrs. VanCise has been president of Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, at Oregon State during the past year.

"After Twenty Years" will be the topic of Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom's sermon on Sunday morning at the Orinda Community Church at the 8:15, 9:30 and 11 o'clock services. The Women's Chorus will present the special music.

Nursery care and Church School through the 6th grade will be held at 8:15; three-year-olds through eighth grade at 9:30; nursery care through the 8th grade at 11. High School students will attend church.

Senior Pilgrim Fellowship will go bike riding in Golden Gate Park on Sunday. Meet at the church at 3:00 p.m.

The annual Church picnic will be on the Church patio Wednesday. Steaks may be purchased; salad and dessert will be pot luck.

Presbyterians

Sunday the Rev. David Beamer of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church will conduct services at the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church in the absence of the Rev. W. Carl Thomas.

Rev. Thomas will be one of the speakers at the Young Married Couples conference to be held at Mount Hermon this week end. Duplicate services will be held at the Park Theater at 9:30 and 11 a.m.

Church school classes meet at 9:30 and 11 a.m. at the Lafayette Town Hall and the Legion Hall. Nursery is available for children under three years of age at 1030 Brown Avenue, Lafayette.

The East Lafayette area fellowship will hold a potluck dinner tomorrow at the Downey home, 945 Carol Lane, Lafayette.

Many of the regularly scheduled Bible discussion groups will be discontinued for the summer. It is suggested that anyone interested call the Church office AT 3-8722 for more detailed information.

Baptists

Sunday is "Dad's Day" at the First Baptist Church, 3653 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Sunday school begins at 10; Morning Worship at 11. The message will be "Measuring Up Father." Evening Fellowship hour is 7. Wednesday night prayer and Bible Study at 7:30.

Baptist

Sunday, the First Baptist Church of Orinda will have Joseph Noble as guest speaker of the 11 a.m. worship service.

Mr. Noble was formerly director of youth at the First Baptist Church in San Francisco and has worked extensively in several national Christian organizations.

He is now an executive with Standard Oil Company of California. He is a widely sought after speaker and will be bringing a message on the subject "What Name Is He Giving You?"

The First Baptist Church of Orinda is temporarily meeting in the Willows Restaurant banquet room at the Orinda crossroads. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Rheem Rates 'Hats Off-- Theater Is Latest Effort

An Editorial

Opening of the ultra-modern Rheem Theater on Park Street, Rheem, has been hailed as an event of major importance for Central Contra Costa County.

It is that, of course, since this theater has been aptly described as one of the most beautiful in Northern California. Not only is it beautiful—it also represents the maximum in comfort, and it is easily accessible to area residents.

OPENING OF the theater is another "feather in the cap" of its owner, Donald Rheem, well-known industrialist who has done much for development of this area.

Shy when it comes to seeking publicity, Rheem is well-known for his hard work and for seeing a project through to fulfillment.

DONALD RHEEM early recognized the potentialities of this area—and he helped pioneer its development.

Most of the buildings at Orinda Crossroads were built by him. Even though they were erected some time ago, their sturdiness and attractive architecture make them still outstanding.

FURTHER PROOF of his pioneering spirit is Rheem Center—multi-million dollar shopping center, in which the luxurious new Rheem Theater is the latest unit.

His shyness, regarding publicity is such that he doesn't talk much about himself—and he doesn't like to pose for pictures.

But in the opinion of numerous area residents and business people, Donald Rheem certainly deserves a "Hats off!" tribute.

Moraga School Graduation Held Yesterday Eve.

Church, Orinda who gave the invocation.

Valedictorian was Miss Priscilla Devin. Presenting the diplomas were Charles E. Toll, principal, and Harry Rohrer, clerk of the Board of Trustees.

Graduates were Lana Barker, Marion Collett, Pamela Dermitt, Priscilla Devin, Bonnie Hamilton, John Hoyt, Michael Kazar, Jill Lemp, Sam Levy, Sharon Levy and Sharon Read.

Graduation exercises for 11 graduating students of the Moraga Elementary School were held last night at the Moraga School.

The program included Jens Lund of Miramonte High School who spoke on "Opportunities That Lie Ahead," and the Reverend Ross F. Hidy, of The Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran

Honored by ROTC

The traditional Provost's Review of the University of California, Santa Barbara College ROTC Cadet Corps saw a local resident awarded the coveted superior cadet ribbon given annually to cadets in each of the four military science classes.

Jerald Arthur Coombs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur I. Coombs, 3330 Beechwood Dr., Lafayette, was among four students who received the ribbon.

Meeting Held by AFS Committee

A business meeting, followed by luncheon, was held by members of the American Field Service Committee June 4 in the home of Mrs. Charles Van Ummeren, 936 Hawthorn Drive.

Plans were made for activities of the coming year. The officers and committee chairmen are: Mrs. Mike Roberts, chairman; Mrs. Milton S. Adair, assistant chairman; Mrs. Howard S. Gardner, secretary; Mrs. Tom E. Jeffries, treasurer and fund raising chairman; Mrs. Paul J. Albright, school activity chairman; Mrs. William N. Takahashi and Mrs. Charles Van Ummeren, project chairman.

Mrs. Jack B. Cardle, telephone chairman; Mrs. Burwell Spurlock, home placement chairman; Mrs. Arthur J. Hunicutt and Mrs. Louis H. Smith, publicity chairmen; Mrs. Earl M. Creager, advisor.

Two foreign exchange students will arrive in August. They will attend Acalanes High School, while living in the homes of Mrs. Rudolph O. Monosmith, 70 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda and Mrs. Lawton L. Shurtleff, 790 Los Palos, Lafayette.

Weekends are the most dangerous time to be on U.S. highways. In 1956, more than 56 per cent of all fatalities occurred on Friday, Saturdays and Sundays.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

It blew up at this blow-out!

A CARICATURE OF OL' SOL sipping lemonade (?) was artfully carried from invitation to smart simple decor at last Saturday's Children's Hospital benefit by Orinda Lombardy Branch members whose annual frolic is a favorite hereabouts.

The fact that Mr. Sun took time out to attend the party, even leaving his yellow footprints along the pathways to and around the terraces of the attractive contemporary Snowberry Lane residence of the Robert Hamptons must have infuriated his Breezy Bros. who "blew up" a bit at the idea of their solar friend crashing a planetary party.

HOTESS—Chairman Marilyn Hampton was especially busy, minus her husband who has been hospitalized for several weeks, and the many inquiring about Bob learned he would be coming home sometime this week. (They all missed you, Mr. H!)

TAKING TICKETS at the top terrace entry, Joan Kendall, her deep summer skintone enhanced by a vivid orange frock . . . Gladys Hamberg (a pert new hairdo for her) and Nels introducing their many town guests . . . The Dan Carters hastening to hail Bill and Jewel Witter who just a year ago swapped Sleepy Hollow for a Sleepy Lagoon in Belvedere.

STATELY WELL-PRUNED OAKS hugging the Hamptons' handsome and spacious grounds . . . Here, on the terrace levels, the Jim Hills w/the Bill Courtwrights . . . Dorothy Bentley, pretty and petite in printed frock, toting a tray almost bigger than SHE . . . Renewing old friendships, George and Shirley Haas, former Orindans now residing in Oakland, coming in w/the Art Schwatkas.

A "law of average" winner

TARDY PARTY . . . Guests swarming in 7:30ish for the 4-7 affair . . . The Robert Cases w/Hilja wearing her own crocheted creation of white rayon straw and evoking a ripple of compliments . . . Phyllis Barton and Cinders McFarland seeking out their spouses, the foursome over from Happy Valley . . . Yates Bleuel ducking home across the street for a warmer wrap for Cornelia whose green silk chiffon coat, however fetching, was no buffer for the whipping breezes.

HIGH HEADS IN THE CROWD . . . The Charles Gibbs, thrilled over their dghter, Barbara's many scholarship offers . . . The Rollin Moores, Hank Wrights, Channing Kilburns, Bill and Mary Christiansen. And tall Bud Kocher, husband of member June (he bought REAMS of tickets), MORE surprised than ANYONE when he drew his OWN ticket for the door prize, a case of Suburbon, s'there!

MORE TALL TWOSOMES . . . The Allen Goldsmiths making the rounds, Arthur Lundblads, Hank and Millie Wright chatting w/the Brick Howards. GLIMPSES of a white orchid pinned to Dorothy Palmgren's fur wrap, Gene Cantrill wearing an orchid lei (one of the many flowered beauties flown in by Frank Walker as a surprise for his spouse Georgette as well as the other Tanager Hostesses at last week's simultaneous bridge soirees to benefit the Therapy Center), Miles Sutfille in perpetual motion w/trays and other party paraphernalia, Gloria Rasmussen chatting w/her sister-in-law Allie Rasmussen whose fur-collared and cuffed silk coat was reminiscent of the 30's look. Black tiered lace for Jean Downs whose Joe juggled one tray after another to help the party hostesses . . . Marie Monahan in that SAME old black lace stole . . . are you with us?

"SOME OF THE CHARACTERS AT THE PARTY" . . . THAT'S what the bereted artist's advertising cartoon carried in print beneath it . . . Here, TRYING to sit still and silent, in spite of a heckling audience that incl. the Ken Whites, Joe Zablockis, and her husband Bob, was Betty Lyman getting her caricature drawn . . . The clever artwork on display included one of Dolly Light, she in a full length white polished leather coat, a regal hairdo w/a tiara comb, sipping champagne w/her husband Ron and toasting their holiday in New Orleans from which they just returned.

Mittens might have helped . . .

ONCE OVER POLITELY . . . The Ring Toss Game brisk business for member Peg Young and her Bill who left for Salt Lake last Monday . . . The Bill Bairds and Al and Lucille Wolff trying for a WIN . . . The Earl Hughes (they'll summer in Mexico) making dinner plans w/Goodwin and Betty Husar . . . LATE DINNERS and long waits at local eateries for most . . . The Crete Baldwins and Homer Jewitts settling for steaks at Casa O . . . The George Merriams, Jack Reillys, Cole Huntleys and Charles Coburns meeting more of the party crowd at Sanford's in Montclair, while the Lloyd Hecathorns, who took a table for six at El Nido, were later joined by the Jim Seamans. And we'll wager that MOST ordered their hot coffee Pre-dinner for a bit of hand-thawing after holding on to ice cubes during the brisk June evening.

A PARTY OF SMALLER PROPORTIONS, but for the benefit of same, was the final fling before summer for Alder Branch members and their husbands at the Hacienda Circle home of the George Krusis last Saturday afternoon.

A chicken in every basket, possibly two, w/all the trimmings, the money-maker, for THESE were auctioned off between dips in the pool, dancing in the playroom and sportive sets of ping pong . . . Ken Volker bidding HIGH on Bey Sweet's boxed chicken supper . . . the Allen Griffins, Donald Reicherts, Clay Petrays, Ralston Mays all of Lafayette and the Richard Kilners of Orinda among those enjoying the alfresco party as were Piedmonters John Bryans, the Jerome Magees and the Carleton Bryans who are readying for an Hawaiian holiday.

ALDER BRANCH, incidentally, is losing member Joy Brorsen, who, with her husband Bob and children, will be new Rochester, N. Y., residents after July 1st.

288 Students At Pine Grove Will Graduate

At 8 o'clock tonight at Miramonte High School auditorium commencement ceremonies will start for the largest grammar school graduating class in the history of the Orinda Union School District.

Diplomas will be presented to 228 graduating eighth-graders from the Pine Grove School by Mrs. Catherine Schwarck, president of the District Board of Trustees.

The program will begin with the Processional, to be followed by the Salute to the Flag, led by Robert Bowles, and invocation by the Rev. A. E. Syverud of Orinda, education director of the Lutheran Welfare Service of Northern California.

GREENINGS WILL be extended by Philip Lambert, assistant superintendent of the Orinda Union School District.

"American Patrol," by F. W. Meacham, will be played by the Pine Grove School orchestra, directed by Gerald Meeder.

Next will come the narration and singing by the graduating class, of "Our Heritage," with music composed by Delwin Elliott. This number will be directed by Mrs. Patricia McGee and Gerald Meeder. The text is by Miss Peggy Rathert, seventh grade teacher at Pine Grove School.

GLENN MCNICOLAS, principal of Pine Grove School, will then present the graduating class, of "Our Heritage," with music composed by Delwin Elliott. This number will be directed by Mrs. Patricia McGee and Gerald Meeder. The text is by Miss Peggy Rathert, seventh grade teacher at Pine Grove School.

Following that, the diplomas will be presented by Mrs. Schwarck, and then the graduation program will close with the Recessional.

Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff will not be present because he will be in Santa Clara for the graduation of his son Peter from the University of Santa Clara.

IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING the commencement exercises, the graduation dance will be held at the Pine Grove School auditorium. It will last until midnight.

Page, for copy is plentiful on these, this being June, moon, and Lohengrin tune time. But we do have a very special birth announcement as well as graduation parties galore.

THE THIRD MAN THEME (just try it, hummed!) has replaced

Brahms' Lullaby at the Martin Whites menage since June 3 w/the early morn arrival of Thomas Frankland at Herrick Hospital . . .

At home taking turns hugging him, the two "other men," Greg 9 and John 4½ as well as Katherine 8 and Elizabeth 7 who will enjoy a summer stay along the Massachusetts shoreline with relatives.

The girls are due to depart with Bob and Betty Karplus and their four children July 3, the Karplus family eastbound for a summer teaching stint (for him) at Brandeis University in Mass.

(Coming home in August? The Whites are looking for return-flight companions for their young fair air travelers.)

"A twenty-one son salute" . . .

"I'M TWENTY-ONE TODAY, twenty-one today, I've got the key to the door, I've never been twenty-one before. Pa says I can do as I like, so shout Hip, Hip Hooray, I'm twenty-one today." . . .

An old English (was it Bea Lillie?) song brought to mind because—

A TWENTY-FIRST birthday and a UC diploma in hand called for a double celebration last Saturday in honor of John Nie, son of Britishers Ted and Maudie Nie, who called in friends, relatives and John's contemporaries for the very memorable occasion.

AMONG the localities enjoying a buffet supper followed by dancing on the patio, were the Stanley Allens, the Ed Amatrone, Allen

Meyers and their Peggy and Dave, the Robert Farndons from WC and Dorothy and Lance Barden w/Steve who is scheduled himself for the walk down the aisle this summer. (Interestingly enough, the

Bardens were the first American friends the English, Nies made here when affable Dorothy asked Maudie to Tea!)

The US grad turned twenty-one puts pilot training with the

USAF on his near future plans and congratulating him on this, too, were Judy Sears (Conway was working), Lolita and Bummy Bumgartner, Harry and Erna Biederman, Kristine and Joseph Danna and their son John, in the group too numerous to mention all.

IN HONOR OF GREEK LETTER GRADS, a host of pool parties took place here last week . . .

Among these was Chi Omegas gathering at the Ralph Bender home in Happy Valley, Alpha Omicron Pis welcomed alumnae ranks at the Rheem Blvd. residence of the Dudley Frosts, Alpha Phi partied at the William K. Houstons' on Robert Road and the Sigma Kappas got in the swim, too, at the pool of the Oakwood Road home of Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harper.

Curved Bar Presented

Karen Fernsten of Orinda Girl Scout Troop 44 received the Curved Bar pin, the highest intermediate Girl Scout award, at a Court of Awards recently held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Orinda.

Parents of troop members were present for the ceremonies.

Mrs. Ralph Hall, troop leader, presented the Curved Bar pin to Karen and also awarded her the First Aid to Animals badge, the Conservation badge, the Personal Health badge, the Handywoman badge and the Dressmaker badge.

The Dressmaker badge was awarded to all other members of the troop, including Suzanne Arighi, Laraine Axelson, Robin Brown, Joanne Hall, Charlotte Kimball, Jan Miller and Wendy Shuey.

Preceding the Court of Awards, a barbecue was enjoyed by the girls.

Miramonte High School was the guest school featured on "Rock and Rally," a program devoted to Bay Area high schools, on Station KPIX yesterday at 4 p.m.

Approximately 30 students participated in the program, which consisted of films taken of activities at the school and an informal open house, interviews and dancing.

John Parry Laird, Orinda student on the Davis campus of the University of California, has been awarded a scholarship for the coming school year.

Laird, a junior majoring in landscape management in the College of Agriculture, will receive a California Association of Nurserymen scholarship to continue his studies, said E. Louis Proebsting, chairman of the Davis Committee on Undergraduate Scholarships.

He is the son of John Parry Laird Sr., of 39 Claremont Drive, Orinda, and a 1954 graduate of Acalanes High School.

Quick work by Walnut Creek Police Sergeant Vince Young saved the life of Morris Kilgore, 25, of Alameda, who early Wednesday morning parked his car with motor idling, and ran a garden hose from the exhaust through a rear window.

Young spotted the murmuring car with Kilgore slumped behind the wheel at about 3 a.m., just south of 125 Pauline Court. He shut off the motor and carried Kilgore to the nearby lawn.

A central Fire District crew with resuscitator arrived to find Young applying artificial respiration. The young man was showing signs of recovery by then.

A note bidding farewell and saying that he was "just lost," addressed to a Walnut Creek woman, was found on the floor board.

According to police reports, Kilgor later told officers that the illness of his mother and recent dental work accounted partly for his low spirits, but the major difficulty was that his lady friend had not given him much encouragement. He had "nothing but misery all the way," he said.

The woman, age 41, stated that she told Kilgore that she could not see him again, when the evening before they had a drink in a downtown bar and then dinner.

Kilgore is employed by a utility company.

15 Year-Olds Steal, Destroy At Local Home

Two Walnut Creek boys were apprehended for the theft of machinery, destruction of swimming pool facilities and writing obscene words on walls at the home of Walnut Creek City Attorney John Nejededly, June 6.

The Nejededly property on Castle Hill Road was trespassed upon by the 15 year-old youths who had several weeks earlier been caught loitering in the area by Nejededly. The attorney had told them to leave.

The boys took two electric sanders, a power saw, threw lawn furniture in the pool, along with some dirt and animal feces, and inscribed "obscenities" outside stone walls.

Graduates From COP

Carlette Sawyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Sawyer, 86 Sleepy Hollow Lane, Orinda, graduated from the College of the Pacific at Stockton last Friday. She attended Acalanes High School and graduated from Pensacola High in Pensacola, Fla.

Carlette was a member of Epsilon Lambda Sigma at College of the Pacific.

After traveling with the Eur-Cal Group in Europe for three months this summer, she will teach in Oakland, beginning in September.

Theater Permit Extended; Plan 12-Month Use

Extension for six months of a use permit for a proposed Shakespearean Theater on the Lawrence property, Ygnacio Valley Road, was approved by the Walnut Creek city council, last week.

Madison Meyers, theater business manager, attended the meeting, and the same week attended a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

A.A. at Menlo

James Audrey Sweet Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Sweet of 11 El Sereno, Orinda, was among the 129 to receive degrees or diplomas at the commencement exercises of Menlo School and College, Menlo Park, last Friday afternoon on the Menlo School campus.

Dr. William E. Kratt, president, conferred an Associate in Arts degree on James Sweet.

James plans to continue his education at the University of Southern California, to pursue his chosen career in sales management.

Acalanes Trustees Want County School Site Survey

Acalanes High School District trustees Monday concurred with earlier action of the County Board of Education by authorizing a resolution urging that the County Board of Supervisors take steps to enact a county-wide survey for future school sites.

A current bill in the State Legislature would enable county supervisors to compile school site surveys and loan the money on definite repayment terms for site purchases to school districts so that school districts would be able to buy needed sites now rather than wait for higher prices of property in the future.

In other action high school trustees accepted bids for $8474 for physical education equipment for the district's three schools, rejected bids for additions to the Las Lomas multi-use room a "too high," and ordered the district architect to see if reduction can be made in specifications for music rooms included in the project.

They adopted a textbook list for the next academic year, approved increased paved parking areas a Miramonte, raised district compensation for substitute teacher to $20 per day and compensation for adult education instructor from $4 to $4.25 per hour, "to keep the district in line with other districts in the area."

They discussed the tentative budget for next year with final action postponed until their next meeting at the end of this month.

Receive Diploma

Park E. Trefts, son of Mrs. John C. Ryan, 40 Las Palomas, Orinda, was one of the 43 high school seniors who was awarded diplomas by Dr. William E. Kratt, President of Menlo School and College Menlo Park, at the commencement exercises last Friday on the Menlo School campus.

Lt. Norman Rue Goes to France

First Lt. Norman L. Rue, 24, son of Walter A. Rue, 2729 Kinney drive, Walnut Creek, recently was assigned to the Army's Communication Zone Advance Section in France.

Lieutenant Rue entered the army in September 1952. He arrived in Europe for this tour of duty last April. He attended the University of California.

Man Passes Examinations

John Englekling, 33, of 967 Pleasant Hill Road, Lafayette, recently passed the 1957 spring state bar examination.

His admission to practice of the attorney's profession was certified in San Francisco Wednesday.

Luck to Complete Marine Training

George E. Luck Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Luck of 958 Foye Drive, Lafayette, is scheduled to complete recruit training today at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

The 11-week course includes instruction in all basic military subjects and the firing of all basic infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training new Marines are assigned to a unit for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

SHOWER TIME

The Judith Lane and close environs set have been having a new type baby shower. Recently Evelyn DiGrazia and Betty Bridgeford were hostesses at a surprise morning coffee hour for Lucile Robertson and her new daughter, Toni Sue.

Those who brought gifts, enjoyed seeing the baby, coffee, rolls, and an hour's chat were Gerda Richardson, Jean Emory, Ruth Barcelona, Betty Linthicum, and Lois Hughes. Lois was the honoree last month, and everyone agrees this is a very fun way of having a party and it accomplishes the most important — presents.

AND, HELLO!

Finally caught up with the Lanes, who live where the Mortons used to live on Anita Court, and got the vital statistics about their three daughters, which should prove very interesting — Bronte is 18 and going to Oakland Junior College as of now, Jan is 14 and will be a sophomore at Acalanes in the fall, and Frederica, "Freddie," is 11.

They were up at Russian River over the Memorial Day weekend but the two younger girls will be home during the summer, and eager to meet more kids.

FLY-UP

The Fly-Up ceremony for Brownie Troop 308 was held recently, and our local girls who proceeded from Brownies to Girl Scouts were Elaine Roach, Rochelle Zalkin, Penny Pike and Beverly Ortiz. Two other Orteztes also advanced, Bobby to Second Class Scout, and Tom to First Class Scout in Troop 235 — Norma's and Merv's advance was in the cost of living.

BUSY BOYS

Two lads imbued with Spring Fervor for the Community Center put on their own money-raising fair recently. Bruce and Laurie Shepard of Janet Lane had a rummage sale, popcorn and Koolaid department. Bingo, game, hammer and nail booth, ball tossing, and lots of eager customers. At last count, at 4 p.m., they had raised $8.01, which is pretty fair.

especially considering that their goal was 93 cents.

OFF FOR ITALY

Evelyn DiGrazia recently had 16 feminine members of her family for an afternoon buffet honoring her cousin, Zeldia Damele, who is leaving to live in Italy. Her year-old daughter also shared in the many gifts and good wishes that will go along with her.

5-YEAR MARK

Scotty Peters was 5 years old May 23, and took his friends to Fairland for the afternoon — said friends being Libby Holden, Betty and Laurel Richardson, Sheryl Hanson, Danny Robertson, Donnie DiGrazia, Debbie Madison, and his brother and sister, Skip and Lynn. They returned home for ice cream and cake.

That was also the day that Jim Holden poled when he should have vaulted, or vice versa. Because he broke his wrist and a bone in his arm, and is sporting a large white cast, no pink carnations.

To end on a childlike note, there are plans afoot for a picnic sponsored by the Lafayette Meadows Improvement Club for all the mothers and children in our little area to be held at Buckeye. Also, what do you think of a barbecue or a hayride for adults later? Hmmm!

St. Mary's Sets Mosaic Display

The mosaic creations of several noted artists of this area and the works of their students are on display in the St. Mary's College Library. The exhibit may be seen each weekday from 9 to 5 and will remain open to the public until June 23.

Among the artists exhibiting are: Nikos Beljon and Tony Solomayor of San Francisco; Bella Feldman of Berkeley, and Louise Jenkins of Big Sur.

These mosaics are made of gold, silver and other metals, mirrors, colored glass, and brilliantly colored Italian tiles.

Some of the more beautiful ones are: "Mandolin," set in plastic, by Beljon; Feldman's "Oxon," and "Osiris" by Jenkins.

The exhibit is the last in a series which have been shown in the St. Mary's College Library this year.

Christian Science

The healing and protecting power of effective prayer will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man."

Christian Science churches in this area are located at 22 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek. The Christian Science Society of Pleasant Hill meets at the Hillcrest Congregational Church on Gregory Lane.

Scriptural passages will include the following from Psalms (145: 18, 19): "The Lord is nigh unto all them that call upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will save them." From "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy the following selection will be among those read (231:8): "If God heals not the sick, they are not healed, for no lesser power equals the infinite All-power; but God, Truth, Life, Love, does heal the sick through the prayer of the righteous."

The Golden Text is from Hosea (12:13): "By a prophet the Lord brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet he preserved."

280 to Get Diplomas at Acalanes

Two hundred eighty Acalanes High School seniors received their diplomas in commencement exercises last night on the Acalanes Memorial Field, in the 17th graduation ceremony held since the high school's founding. Officers of the graduating class were Richard Neuman, president; William Blythe, vice president; Elizabeth Clark, secretary; Kathleen Young, treasurer; and Lynne Henrietta, social secretary. The class was presented by President Richard Neuman, with senior speeches given by Viola Ann Sonntag and Allen H. Shapiro. Awards presentation was made by Neil M. Parsons, district superintendent. Diplomas were presented by Trustees William B. Freeman and Will C. Hall. Invocation was given by Rabbi Joseph Gumbiner, director of B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation, Berkeley. Benediction was rendered by the Rev. A. E. Syverud, education director of the Lutheran Welfare Service of Northern California. Baccalaureate was held last Sunday evening at the Acalanes auditorium. At that program, an address was delivered by the Rev. David Beamer, minister of youth at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church. Invocation was offered by the Rev. Chauncey E. Blossom of the Orinda Community Church. Benediction was by the Rev. Merle O. Tollefson of Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Lafayette.

Summer Is Here and We Can Help Youth Again!

Well, school is almost out, and the long summer months are staring the teen-agers in the face.

Why mention the teen-agers? Several reasons are apparent. Younger children are pretty well bound by the family activities. They play with their friends, sometimes go to a summer camp, and generally go on vacations with their family.

But teen-agers don't necessarily fit into this pattern. In the first place, they generally need money. They might be buying a car, or saving for college, or working on a new wardrobe.

But whatever the case, teen-agers need money, and the usual answer to this need is a job.

Where does a teen-ager go to get a job. Sometimes the answer is not very obvious, especially to the youngsters who are bright-eyed and willing, but completely lacking in experience.

There are several efforts under way at the present time to promote an actual "occupational bureau" for our youngsters, but these things take time to work out and set up.

And in the meantime, there are a lot of willing workers just "standing around."

In an effort to help the youngsters

(and incidentally, many of the satisfied homeowners) The Sun is again offering to run free classified ads for teen-agers who are looking for employment.

For details, see the news article on the front page.

This program was inaugurated by The Sun last year, and the response, both from pleased teen-agers and satisfied employers, was tremendous.

This response indicated in itself, the need for such a program.

But the program won't work without the cooperation of all of us—teen-agers, parents and employers.

The kids are active and willing workers... and you might very well have something that their hands can do. So why not get together.

You'll be doing yourself a favor... and you'll be helping our young people learn self-sufficiency and the value of an earned dollar.

Why not check the rules now... and then check The Sun classified section next week.

If you hire a youngster, we're sure you'll be more than pleased with the results.

And you'll be helping your community.

Sun Strokes

About Vacations, Comedy

By Pat Pending

Lots of our kiddies are going to summer camps AFTER school is out. I have read a news item that indicates how the amiable Russian Communists are softening—they are really interested in youth! They have arranged for 46,000 young Hungarians to go to camps this summer—Concentration Camps.

These are the youngsters who heeded the Voice of America's advice and revolted.

And, this isn't funny!

I drive at least a hundred miles every day and I see at least one cat each day that has been killed by a car. To me this is a catastrophe.

I'm curious by nature. How come the pin ball machines in Martinez are still multiple-play? The machines are also multiple play elsewhere in the county excepting El Sobrante. In El Sobrante a citizen has to stand and patiently push in one nickel at a time. Is this discrimination? Of course, I know this is not important because there is no pay-off anyway. Or is there? And, if there is, who gets it?

Don't get me wrong, folks, I'm not against gambling. After all, they found dice in the tombs of Egyptian Pharaohs. I know several prominent citizens who gallop off to Reno on week ends to gamble (or to gambol, as the case may be). Reno is in Nevada—a state located just east of us—which gladly latches onto California gambling dollars.

WARNING!

Don't let your dog watch T. V. A dog in Beverly Hills was frozen into dazed, unseeing immobility while watching a T. V. comedy! Even a doggie bon-bon couldn't awaken him! This confirms a feeling I've had for some time: T. V. comedy is going to the dogs!

So, if your pet drools over Rinty or Cleo, tell him to forget it and to go outside and make friends and influence people by digging up the neighbor's flowers.

If you want dogs to keep out of your gardens plant Cholla cactus. They'll get the point!

And, tell Paul Revere that the British are coming again! They won't stay long though—they'll only be able to bring $280 with them!

Letters to The Editor

THANKS

Dear Editor:

For the Strandwood Parents' Club and myself, I wish to thank you for your cooperation in covering our news this past year. Many thanks too for taking our pictures—especially that last mad dash!

Personally, you helped me so much in writing our articles, for which I am very grateful.

Sincerely,

HELEN S. WHITNEY

JUVENILES

Dear Editor:

Juvenile delinquency is much in the spotlight today and some desperate measures are being tried to reverse the trend.

One method being advocated is to publish all the names of minors in trouble.

To me, this seems to be going too far back in history to a remedy that didn't work two hundred years ago, and wouldn't now.

At that time, criminals were branded, so it automatically became once a criminal always a criminal. To many, it would bring the same results now if every mistake were published.

Many of our youthful delinquents are in trouble during a short period of their lives; then things straighten out and they fly right.

On the other hand, we have badly warped juveniles who would glory in the publicity—they too might be cheered just like Frank Costello, so if you want them cheered, let's let the public know. They would only be encouraged by publicity.

Between the two extremes we have some who need different treatment but not so far as publicity is concerned. To harm innocent members of a family and drag others down to a lower level could not possibly help prevent delinquency.

A wise, healthy-minded community will do its utmost to improve conditions that we know may breed crime and diligently seek to find out how to prevent new outbreaks.

Better education for living, more opportunities for wholesome fun, more and more jobs for teen-agers could help.

These things would work to prevent crimes but publishing names, beating young offenders and other sadistic measures would not get at the root of any wrongdoing.

MRS. HAROLD FRAZIER

THANK YOU

Dear Editor:

The Diablo Art Association wishes to thank you very sincerely for your generous help in publicizing the Pageant of Arts recently held in this community.

Your cooperation was very effective in bringing it to the attention of the public.

The quality of the arts presented, the number of participants and the interest of the whole community made this effort very worthwhile.

Sincerely,
FRANCES WHITMAN

HOSPITAL

Dear Editor:

Recently I was a patient in the Concord Community Hospital, and through your paper I would like to take the opportunity to thank the Hospital's personnel for all the fine care and service I received while there.

MRS. FRANK SCHMIT

PTA

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your cooperation during my year as Loma Vista PTA chairman.

Got Spelling Troubles? Try This on for Size...

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

(Editor and Publisher Herman Silverman is on vacation, and thus the hallowed lines of this column fall into the hands of the editorial staff. This column is written by Dick Osborn, so don't say you weren't warned. Read it at your own risk.)

Here Goes the First Rock

There is an old adage about people who live in glass houses not throwing rocks, but it seems to be human nature to toss an exploratory pebble or two every now and then just to see what happens.

Thus the question from the Glass House Department: Why can't people spell anymore?

At one time most of the editorial members of The Sun staff could spell, but after looking at a few dozen horrible examples each day, their minds seem to have cracked, and now it is seldom that agreement can be reached on the spelling of such words as "cat." (There is always the contingent that insists the word begins with a "k").

Thus we would humbly like to pass along what we consider to be one of the most significant potential changes ever to be proposed regarding the English language.

Of course, we'll all be superannuated, but think of the future for our kids!

The following masterpiece comes from Life magazine, which in turn picked it up from Torch, the Smithsonian Institute magazine. Torch wants to start the ball rolling on a simplified spelling program this year by substituting "s" for soft "c."

A Horibl Examlp

"In 1958," says the Torch, "the hard 'c' would be replaced by 'k'... Not only would this clarify the konfusion in the minds of spellers but typewriters and linotypes would all be built with one less letter... In the subsequent blaze of publicity, it would be announced that the troublesome 'ph' would henseforth be written 'f'. This would make words like 'fonograf' 20 percent shorter in print."

"By 1959 publik interest in a fonetik alfabet can be expected to have reatshed a point where more radikal procedures are indicated. We would urge at that time the elimination of al double letters whitsh have always ben a nuisance and desided deterrent to akurate speling."

R U Stil With Us?

"We would al agre that the horible mes of silent 'e's' in our language is disgrasful. Therfor, in 1961, we kould drop thes and kontinu to read and writ merily along as though we wer in an atomik ag of edukation. Sins by this tim it would be four years sins anywun had used the leter 'c' we would then sugest substituting 'c' for 'th'."

"Kontinuving ces proposals year after year, we would eventualy have a reali sensibl writen languag. By 1975 wi ventur tu sa cer wud bi no mor uv ces treibli trublsun difikultis."

Life suggests that at the risk of being against progress, maybe we should regard the foregoing as a horibl examlp and be content with spelling we have almost mastered.

In turn, we would like to suggest that the change might be all for the best, because then who could correct whose spelling... (or should it be whome?)

Maybe we'd better consider grammar at the same time...

Free Polio Shot Clinics Will Close End of June

The end of June will bring to a close the special public health polio clinics held since the middle of February as part of a statewide campaign against polio.

Four weeks following your first inoculation, the second shot may be administered and the series of three should be completed within seven to 12 months. Get an inoculation now and start building immunity against this disease," he said.

In the area, clinics are held each Saturday morning from 9 to 12 at the Health Department office, 3241 North Main Street, Pleasant Hill, and on Thursday evenings at Pleasant Hill.

Everyone 40 years of age in the next few weeks may get their polio shots before the summer polio season begins.

Blum said, "With two shots, a vaccine, person has some protection. Other clinics are in Richmond against paralytic polio, however, and Pittsburg.

The Staff Corner

'Let's Be Imprudent Enough'

By Lou Cannon

It wasn't so very long ago that a Negro Family purchased and moved into a home in Pleasant Hill.

At the time reaction wasn't generally favorable. Contra Costans share the usual prejudices of many Americans, and then, too, there was the talk of "depreciating property values."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED since is a matter of unspectacular but noteworthy interest. The fears and prejudices, quite simply, have shown the usual lack of factual foundation, and the family has been accepted as the good neighbors and citizens that they are.

The pleasantest postscript on this kind of story, of course, is to sum it up as a positive example of democracy—which it is—and let it go at that.

Write it in a column, wrap it up, and send to Mississippi or some other foreign place.

And then, every once in a while, we come across the other kind of story, the story that a rival weekly wrote last week when it talked about the apparent efforts of a particular neighborhood to prevent a resident from selling her home to another Negro citizen.

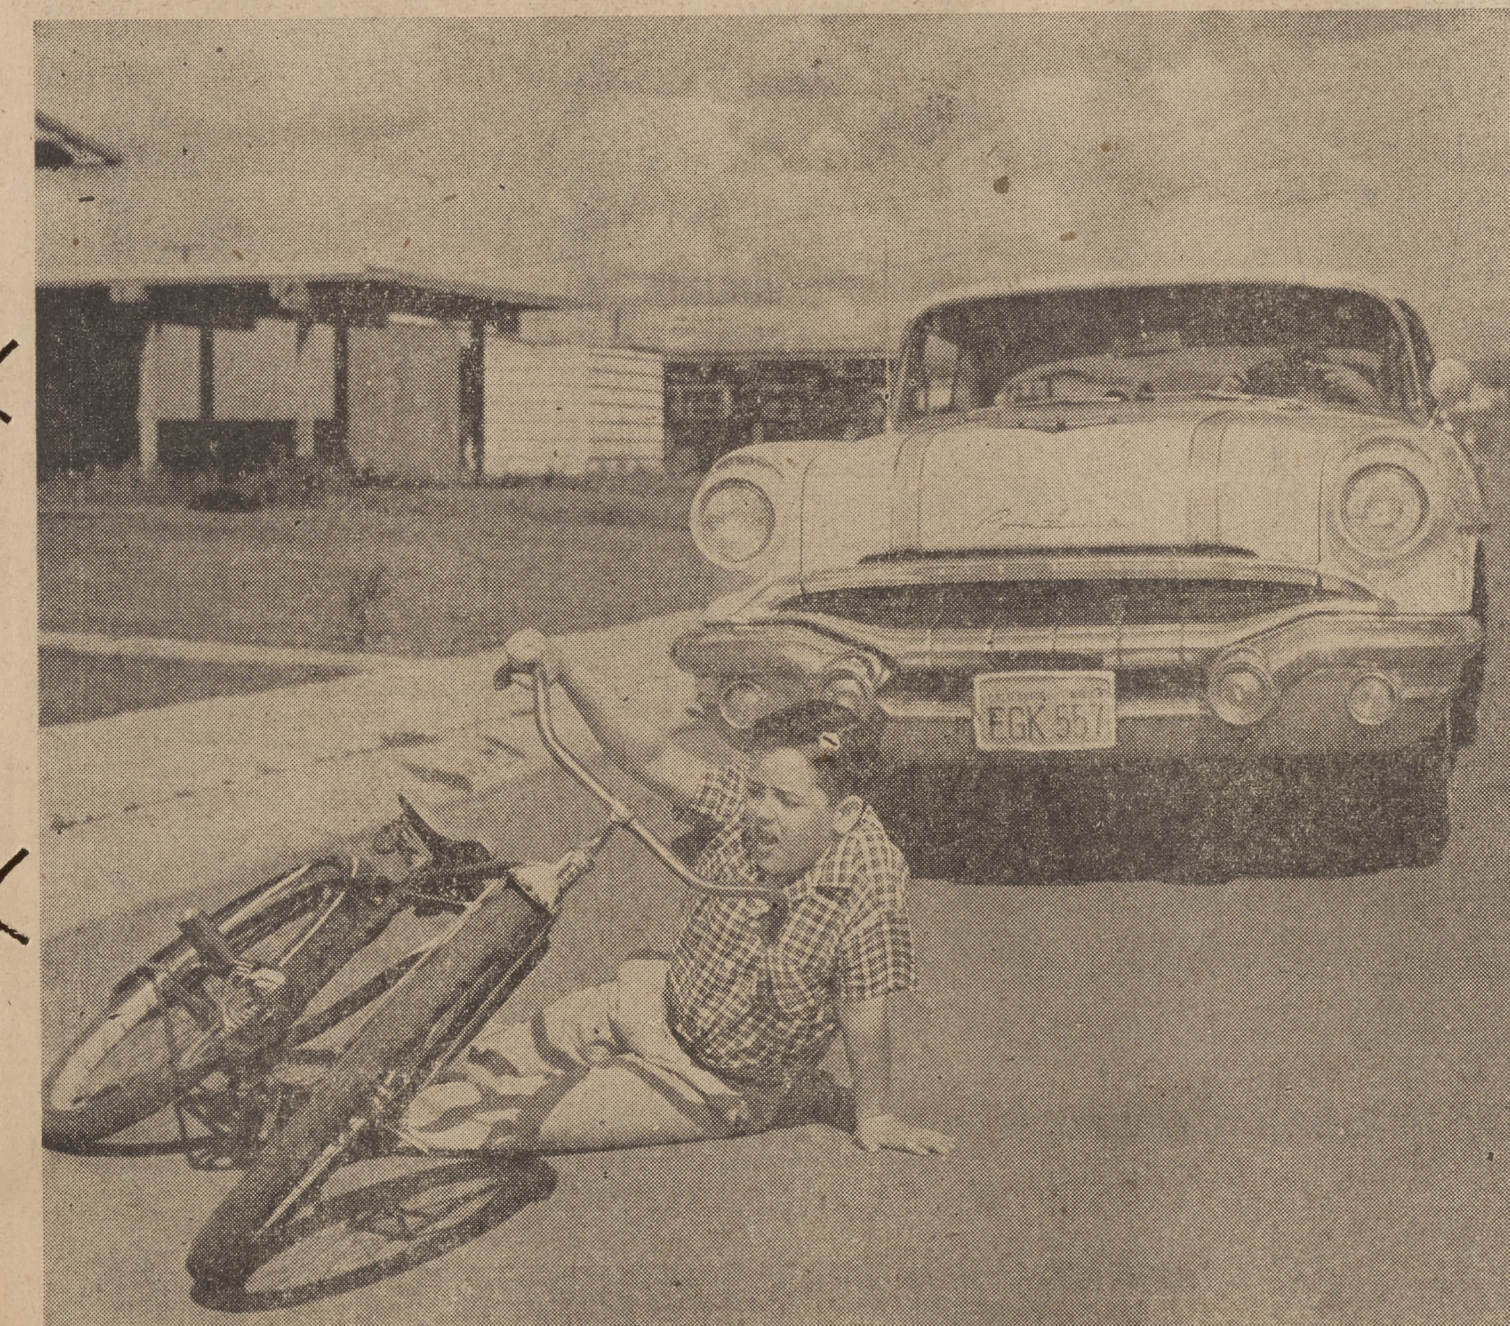

THIS COLUMNIST CHECKED this particular story out and doesn't desire to make a federal case of it. The woman involved seems happy enough and stated that no unfair pressures were placed upon her.

The neighbors, apparently, have decided to help her sell her home and have pitched in some back yard weed clearing. All very neighborly and nice, and scarcely a singular circumstance.

An easy enough thing for a columnist or newspaper to leave entirely alone, make no comment, and not be responsible for "stirring up trouble, a phrase that is itself quite significant.

Shouldn't we perhaps, this specific incident aside, stir up at least a little thought on the matter?

JUST HOW MANY of us in Concord, Pleasant Hill, Walnut Creek, Lafayette or Orinda live in completely segregated communities?

Junior College Summer Work Begins Monday

Application for admittance to Summer School at East Contra Costa Junior College which begins next week, should be made as soon as possible, Dr. George W. Madison, dean of instruction said.

Registration will be on the opening day, Monday at 8 a.m. Before that time, applicants should arrange to have a transcript of their high school or college records on file at the Student Personnel Office. They should also fill out an application blank.

The eight-week session will consist mostly of morning classes Mondays through Fridays. Nineteen courses will be offered, for which there is no tuition fee.

The college is fully accredited by the Western Colleges Association, the University of California, and the State Department of Education. It is also accredited for training Veterans.

Former service personnel enroll after obtaining a certificate of eligibility from the Veterans Administration. Registering in summer school will help the veteran who must begin his training before the opening of next semester in September.

Information and schedules may be obtained at the Student Personnel Office, located on the ground floor of the Library Classroom Building, or by calling the college at the new telephone number, MULberry 5-1230.

RURAL ROADS

At an average rate of 30 miles per hour it would take an automobile more than 11 years to travel over the 3,012,520 miles of rural roads in the United States today.

Two Sessions Of Personnel Tests Planned

Two sessions of personnel tests, required of all students at East Contra Costa Junior College will be conducted next week, Dr. Ashley Stevens, dean of student personnel, announced today.

The college ability test and the cooperative English tests will be given on Tuesday night from 7 to 10, and the general aptitude battery two days later, on Thursday, from 9 to 12 noon.

Most entering freshmen, Dr. Stevens said, have already taken the tests in their senior year of high school.

If not, or if they are new residents from high schools where pre-college testing is not done, they may take advantage of the sessions.

Testing is particularly important for those seeking admission to the vocational courses: electronics, dental assisting and vocational nursing. These classes are limited in size by the availability of laboratory or other special equipment and by the arrangements which the college makes for each student to get practical experience in his field.

So far as possible, classes are made up well in advance of fall. Achievements made in the tests and subsequent interviews with the individual instructors are important in gaining admittance.

While tests do not determine general admission, they are required for educational, vocational and personal counseling purposes, Dr. Stevens pointed out.

The college may be contacted for additional information, using the new telephone number, MULberry 5-1230. The school is located on Golf Links Road off Contra Costa Highway.

On The Lighter Side

by INA BLIESNER

In starting, what could be more fitting than to tell you a little news about our beloved Therapy Center Director, Juanita Benoy.

Did you know that her daughter, Suzanne, with her husband, has been living in Germany for two years and that Mrs. Benoy had never seen her little granddaughter, Pam? Well, all is well now, for Suzanne and the baby arrived about two weeks ago to spend two months at "home"—and, even better, husband Chris joined them for a month's leave from the Army.

YOU CAN IMAGINE that things are really "humming" in the Benoy household.

First hand information has it that Pam is a bundle of friendly sweetness, which is of course, a surprise to no one.

Aloha nui loa from the McGuires

The ever busy Bill McGuire has been in the Islands for about two weeks and are not due home for another two. Don't know where Bobby has found the time—but somewhere along the line—she has written long, long letters which have been sent to Bill's office for mimeographing and sent on to friends.

SUCH READING THEY ARE! Along with being a beauty, Bobby is quite a clown, as so many of you know. It all comes out in the letters. Such descriptions! Both beautiful and witty. Apparently they've loved every part of the trip—with the exception of the Luau, eating with chop sticks, an overdose of onions in the Sukiyaki at a Tea House, and raw fish.

Also, apparently, Bobby has taken a particular liking to Sarongs, much to Bill's consternation—but she has promised that she will get plenty of wear out of them at home. We shall see!

And all pretty as pictures

The Towhee tea for Associate members was really lovely—even though the day was unusually warm and close. Ann Nielsen, at whose home it was given—looked as cool as peppermint ice cream in an adorable pink, tucked, lingerie-type dress. All of the hostesses looked charming in their light summer frocks.

Especially stunning was Associate member, Laurie Abbes, in a smart, natural colored linen suit plus a huge straw cartwheel, the crown completely circled with vari-colored Mexican poppys.

IN STARK WHITE, which emphasized her golden tan, Alice Cashin was a picture. It was fun seeing the many beautiful articles which the Towhee members are making. They will be sold at their "Tinsel Tea" in December. Vacation time or not—they will be working on these items all through the summer.

Flamingo members, Mildred Blumberg, Phyllis Bowers, Omila Lee, Marge Dole, Helen Canty, and Helen Gibson attended the Pleasant Hill Aquatic's party last Saturday night. Phyllis Bowers is keeping especially busy, having given a tea at her home recently to acquaint prospective members with the duties and responsibilities of active membership.

Among those attending were Ardeth Lazareschi, Gerry Ingalls, and Helen Gibson, Barbara Kuhn, recently returned from a two weeks visit with her family in Monrovia. Mrs. Clarence J. Burke of Pleasant Hill, has with her for the month of July, her mother, Mrs. Alvina Colbie, and her husband's parents, the Clarence F. Burkes, all from Chicago.

Just look who's entertaining!

Mrs. Tom Bond, a very active member of the "Hummingbird Unit," is entertaining Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Dechant from Lakeport: formerly of Berkeley. A week of relaxation and card parties is on their calendar. At the lovely home of the Ted Schroeders, the Flickers gave their tea for Associate members last Saturday. More about that next week when we dig up some of the scuttlebutt.

ANYWAY, FOLLOWING the tea, Betty and Lloyd Smith were hosts to Louise and Howard Burk and Beth and George Ward at a Barbecue—and they couldn't have picked a better night. Have you checked that moon lately?

The Terry Rings (he is a Walnut Creek attorney and head of the Elks this year) hosted a buffet dinner recently—and among the guests were the Raymond Williams and the Buck Johnsons. "Larks" President, Marge Warburton, entertained at lunch honoring her new board members. Her guest list included the new Veep, Viv Farrell, Treasurer, Pat Kapci, Secretary Marge Ageno, Lib Tessler, Jackie Jacobsen, Betty Fulgham, Janet Gritzer, Flo Ingraham, Mary Neiderkruger (of "Gift Box" fame) Elizabeth Pingree and Terry Ligon.

Much of the conversation centered around vacation plans of the various members.

A little travel talk . . .

Viv Farrell is leaving shortly with her family for a stay at Homewood at Lake Tahoe. Going the farthest and staying the longest will be Marta and Harmon Quarels who have just moved bag and baggage to the tiny island of Arba in the Netherlands West Indies. Cocktails and canapes were served the other evening by Caroline and Harry Young at their new Silver Springs home to the Thomas Jacobsens, Howard Hearn, William Gritzers, William Morrisons, and George McAuliffs.

THE "LARKES" ARE participating in the celebration of the Lafayette "By Pass" by staffing the "Doll Booth" for the three day Fiesta.

Incidentally, Shirley Black's husband (she's the cutest Hummingbird you ever saw) is in charge of that affair which sounds as if it will be a "BALL!"

The "Bud" Ongs just returned from a pretty exciting stay in Oregon. Not only did their son Richard graduate from Oregon State at Corvallis, but also received his Commission in the Navy and is now "Ensign Ong." Dick will be beginning his duty at the end of this week and will be stationed, probably, at points along the Pacific Coast.

As if that were not enough, he also celebrated his birthday at a party in Portland, Oregon. The whole family, including son, Don, also a student at Oregon State, was there to help him.

A real arty party!

Say! Hear that the Art League Ball was the best one yet and the Center certainly must have been well represented. The Jim Shierrys were there with a large party; also Carl and Ruth Peder-son of the "Tanagers." Apparently the "Cha-Cha-Cha" never lived until done by the Center's Social Worker, Irene McDonald—led by

Sun Society

Meet A New Column and It's Charming Author

This week The Sun takes pleasure in introducing a new column and a new columnist. "On the Lighter Side" will appear each week and will present a few of the many facets of social life in our communities.

You will find the names of many of your friends and neighbors spread throughout the column, and you will recognize many people whom you have met at one function or another.

The column is ably written by Ina (Mrs. Dick) Bliesner, who has been a volunteer worker for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center for the past five years.

She lives in Walnut Creek with her husband, the owner of Rick's Restaurants, and their three children, Arthur, 12; Barrie Lee, 10 and Edwin, 9.

THE BLIESNERS HAVE lived in the Walnut Creek area for 10 years, and were residents of Berkeley before that.

Proceeds from the column will go to the Therapy Center, a non-profit organization.

But let Mrs. Bliesner tell you a little about it in her own words. Everyone knows about the Therapy Center, of course; how it began back in 1946 when therapist Mary Doyle was put to work by the Polio Foundation to meet the emergency of a polio epidemic.

"AND IT GREW AND grew as the need for rehabilitation grew until now it serves all of Contra Costa County.

"The Center is now located in a modern, well-equipped building on Golf Club Road in Pleasant Hill with a complete staff of qualified therapists, social workers, psychologist and other personnel needed for this big job."

"Well, anyhow—the rest of the story is that the Center gives treatment to everyone regardless of color, creed, or ability to pay. Some patients can pay some of the costs, some can pay all, but some can't pay any at all."

"That's where the auxiliary units really go to bat. The more that 500 gals that make up the units are always up to their elbows in something to raise money for the Center. Thanks to these gals and to each and every one of YOU, we really have a non-profit, community-supported rehabilitation center to pop our buttons about."

"ONE COULD GO ON and on about this very worthy project—but that is not the purpose of the column. We felt that so much is published about the work of the members of the units, the board of directors and the staff, that it would be a nice "switch" to tell about some of the interesting and "fun" things that occupy some of their time. We hope that it will interest not only them, but their friends and neighbors as well."

Local Women Welcomed by Junior League

Now provisionals to the Oakland Junior League were welcomed at the annual Play Day Tuesday at the Moraga home of the G. M. Greenwoods. The young women who will begin their intensive volunteer training in September include the following:

Mrs. Richard Brooding (Constance Herman)—lives in Lafayette, has three children, and is active in Cedar Branch, St. Stephen's Church in Orinda. United Crusade and Alpha Phi Alumnae.

Mrs. Grosvenor Bryant (Beverly Breck) graduated as a Deedee from Cal, and resides in Orinda. With a young son to care for, Bev also is a member of the Family Service Bureau board and is active in Deedee alumnae work, Young Republicans and Rowan Branch, and the newly-formed Junior Center Guild.

Mrs. Thomas Curtis (Leota Moulton) now resides in Orinda and is the mother of three young-sters.

Mrs. Robert C. Haring (June Tuller) is quite active in her Lafayette community in the Valley Art Center, fund drives and Walnut Branch of Children's Hospital.

Mrs. Bradford Heard (Barbara Woods) is interested in gardening, sports, and traveling, and lives in Orinda.

Mrs. Howard Hoyt (Jean Meyn) is a graduate of Stanford now living in Orinda.

Mrs. Paul Mouser (Nancy McClure) formerly of Piedmont is now living in Orinda with her three boys.

Mrs. Pierre Pellissier (Joan Jacobus), a resident of Lafayette. Mrs. William Sibbett (Sis Gaines)—lives in Orinda, and has three children.

Mrs. William Sayer Snook (Joan Anthony)—a resident of Walnut Creek, Joan is active in Children's Hospital, Red Cross and United Crusade.

Mrs. William J. Weiskirch (Shirley Talmadge)—Now living in Lafayette, Shirley is active in

Dr. Peyton Jacob—while husband, Clyde, watched approvingly. Irene was garbed as "Maryanne" of sifting sand fame. The Bill Coffeys have been entertaining friends from Los Angeles. They all attended a neighborhood get-together the other eve. Nada Miller, our Speech Therapist, made a fast trip to Eureka for the week-end.

Seen dining at the "Pleasanton Hotel" Saturday night were the Harry Martins and the John Athansons. On Sunday the Art Corner-fords made the same place their destination. Dora Cochrane, our tall, blonde, and beautiful Physical Therapist entertained there not long ago with a small dinner party.

And so we've come to the end of our first attempt and do hope you are still with us. Until next week then—

Jayceetes Install New Officers at Luncheon

Newly elected officers of the Walnut Creek Jayceetes were installed at a luncheon last Saturday at Chubby Humble's "Pioneer Inn."

They are Mesdames Robert Covert, president; John Troeger, vice-president; Donald Campbell, secretary, and Harry Kindorf, treasurer.

Tables were decorated with red and white flowers and the 22 members present each received a corsage.

Mrs. Baxter Kimbrough was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. Thomas Hasper presented novel awards to each member.

Mrs. Arthur Bouterious, outgoing president, was given a gift of silver.

Other members were Mesdames Jack Kerstetter, Fred Sanders, James Axton, William Bar-din, Robert Williams, Thomas Clarke, William Kendrick, Russ Adams, Bill Stone, Richard Boucher, Clifford Davis, Eldon Dickinson, Phillip Gilbert, Robert Sibert and Ferdinand Wascoe. The local Jayceetes recently were hosts to all Jaycee wives' organizations in the area, including Pittsburg, Lafayette and Concord.

A buffet swim party was held at the Donald Campbell home in Lafayette. Fifty-five women attended. A flower arrangement demonstration was given by a local florist.

At the June meeting, the Walnut Creek Jayceetes donated $60 to the Handicapped Boy Scout Committee for purchase of badges used in the Jamboree for handicapped Scouts last weekend.

The group's annual fashion show will be held October 5. Committees will be named at the July meeting.

Mosaics & Wine Draws Over 500 Participants

A rare day in June, a rainbow of mosaics, sparkling wines and the flutter of ladies' linen dresses in the poolside gardens of Mrs. Kathryn Colvin's home in Happy Valley, Lafayette, Sunday afternoon, June 2, all combined to make the Valley Art Center's spring benefit festival, "Mosaics and Wine," a memorable event. Approximately 500 persons sipped fine wines while viewing mosaics by leading Bay Area artists at the colorful event from 2 until 5 p.m. at Mrs. Colvin's home at 1266 Happy Valley Road.

Guests and members of the Valley Art Center gathered from Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill, Danville and Alamo as well as from Berkeley, Oakland and San Francisco for the party, according to J. Gordon Ainsworth of Orinda, general chairman.

Mrs. Fletcher Taylor of Lafayette looked cool and attractive in white cotton with a big-brimmed straw hat while Mrs. Rawlings Simon favored a broad-brimmed natural straw with her hand silk-screen printed dress.

Mrs. John Ellis of Lafayette, who entertained guests following the show at a champagne supper, was pretty in pale blue linen embroidered in white.

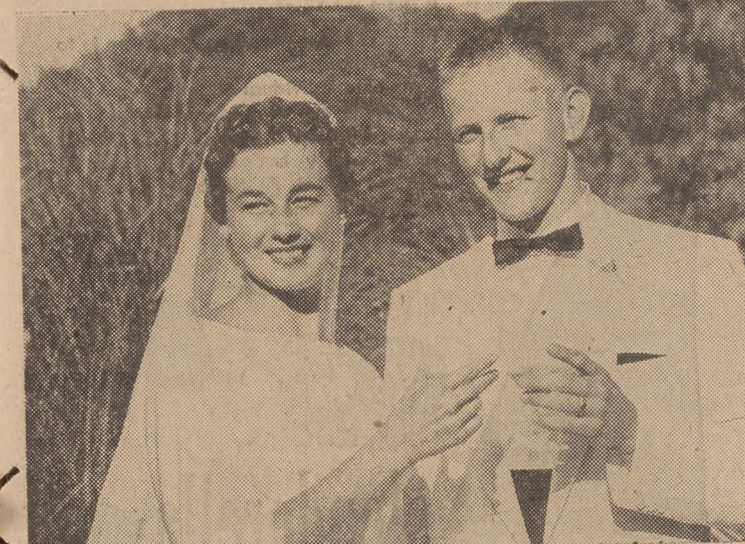

Mrs. Lyle Lund of Lafayette, hostess, chairman at "Mosaics and Wine" chose blue linen also, studded by a wide white beaded midriff. Mrs. E. F. Cardin Jr., of Lafayette, social chairman for the art center, was a standout in blue linen and the white sleeveless sheath worn by Mrs. Richard Ward of Lafayette accented her tawny tan.

Mrs. Arthur Wagstaff of Walnut Creek, member of the social committee, looked attractive in a soft gray print and Mrs. Lester Scharrer of Walnut Creek was attractive in an off-shoulder beige and brown print. Mrs. Harold Powell of Lafayette wore a black linen sheath and Mrs. James R. Moore of Lafayette, white linen.

From Orinda, Mrs. Quentin Thompson came in a beige and blue print topped by a gay white pixie straw hat. Mrs. Alberto de Grassi chose a pink embroidered linen sheath and Mrs. Robert Thaman a beige and white sleeveless polka dot frock.

BARN DANCE of the Walnut Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, will have all the rural trimmin's tomorrow night at Silva's Barn, Diablo. WEDDING of Patricia (Trish) Meyers and Jim Marks took place June 2 at Highlands Chapel, Carmel. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Edward H. Miller of 1127 Garden Lane, Lafayette. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilburn S. Marks of Woodland. The newlyweds will live in Woodland.

Joan Hoffman to Wed Russ Hutchins Soon

Last month at a small informal gathering of family and friends, Joan Hoffman, announced her forthcoming nuptial date with a unique bride scene. The candles and book announcing the date, August 10, formed a background for the tiny hand decorated bride, groom and attendants.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of the Henry Hoffman's of Pleasant Hill. Both she and the prospective groom, Russell Hutchins, are graduates of Pleasant Hill High School.

WITH THE WEDDING date formally announced, Joan was feted with a round of showers. The first was given by Helen Fraschieri, one of Joan's attendants, whose guest list included the other attending of family and friends.

Matron of Honor, Alma Bricksen and Carol Hellstrom. Ruth Stewart of Rocky River, Ohio, will be the fifth attendant.

Other guests included the Mesdames Robert Hargrove, Robert O'Day, Henry Masvick, Albert Maas, Henry Hoffman, Albert Scoot, Walter Wicks and Harlon Gentry, and the Misses Judy Hoffman, Patricia Wassum, Patricia Bono, Patricia Conboy, Ruth Felt and Pat Uffins.

Barn Dance Is Tomorrow

Members of Walnut Creek Branch of Children's Hospital of the East Bay have been sending large sheets of brown wrapping paper to their friends and neighbors announcing the Branch's barn dance to be held at Diablo tomorrow.

According to Mrs. Harmon Howard, chairman, the invitations as fitted the individual ingenuity of the senders went this way:

"Dere fokes,
Yew R envited 2 come 2 the gol durndest ellygunt barn dance party evar gave in these hear parts. Its on saturday, Joon 15 at Silva's barn whech is en Deeb-eloy.
Yew shoob bee their at 6 PM at knite and bring yore pardnor 4 dosey does, eats and refreshments and other things. Sew ef yew comming pleez let me no rite awae.
(Signed)—Yore frends,

There will be a caller, an orchestra and guests will arrive in typical rural attire.

Concord Soroptimists Set Togasaki As June Speaker

A most distinguished speaker, corresponding secretary, Agnes Dr. Kiyoshi Togasaki of Tokyo, Japan, has accepted an invitation as guest speaker for the annual installation banquet of Soroptimist International of Concord tomorrow evening, June 15, at 7:30.

Dr. Togasaki is a Doctor of Letters, and is Ford Chairman for Nippon Times in Tokyo. He had the honor of speaking before Rotary International at the convention held in Switzerland.

The invitation for Dr. Togasaki's appearance here was extended through another doctor and member of Soroptimist International of Concord, his sister, Dr. Yoshiye Togasaki, assistant health officer of Contra Costa County.

Setting for the banquet will be the new Diablo Room of the Student activities building of East Contra Costa Junior College. Assuming presidential duties will be Mrs. Anne Heister of this city, co-ordinator of industrial education at the Junior College, and vice president and program chairman during the past season for Concord Soroptimists. Several officials of the Junior College District have been invited to attend as guests to witness the installation. To be installed with Mrs. Heister are: Margaret Caudel, vice president; Violet Baxley, recording secretary; Irene Ness,

Mt. Diablo Jrs. Install Officers

The last meeting of the Mt. Diablo Junior Women's Club for the year 1956-57 was held recently at the home of Mrs. J. A. Rutherford, Junior Advisor.

Highlighting the evening was the installation of the incoming officers for the 1957-58 period. Mrs. Peter Jarratt Alameda District Junior President, installed the officers in a ceremony and presented each with flowers.

The installed officers are Mrs. N. C. Barron, president; Mrs. H. E. Kubitchek, vice president; Mrs. Ben Strickland, recording secretary; Mrs. W. T. Menzies, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Armand Marra, treasurer; Mrs. Anthony Silva, auditor.

The year-end reports were given by various chairmen in a skit using the telephone. As each chairman finished her report, Mrs. Sarah Pattie, president, presented each with a lovely corsage as a thank you for work well done.

A president's report was given by Mrs. Pattie. At a recent tea honoring the outgoing officers, Mrs. Pattie was presented with a lazy Susan.

The other officers received engraved stationery.

Two reports were given by the delegates to the recent state convention in Los Angeles. They also brought back with them the first prize award in Fine Arts, a painting "Passing Storm" painted by L. S. Nordberg.

The one-man art shows at the Public Library, which the Junior Women's Club sponsors, will continue through the summer, while other club work will resume in September.

His wife is the former Irene Teresa Glover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. William Glover of Port Elizabeth, Union of South Africa.

The couple met while young festivities before the wedding.

Plantetarium Show—

'Pyramids, Palomar'

"From Pyramids to Palomar" is the June show of the Morrison Planetarium in Golden Gate Park, San Francisco.

From the time of the idea of a simple, cozy universe (around 3000 B.C.) the show will take viewers through many periods in history to the present day, when Manager George Bunton points out an astronomer viewing a distant galaxy doesn't even begin to reach the "edge" of space. Performances are given daily (except Monday and Tuesday) at 3:30 and 8:30 p.m., with an additional show at 2 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays.

Orinda Girl Weds; Home In Oakland

About 200 friends and relatives attended the reception June 2 for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hansen at the home of the bride's parents; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll, Orinda, after wedding ceremonies in Berkeley.

The bride is the former Nancy Carroll, graduate of Acalanes High School.

The rites were held at St. John's Presbyterian Church, Berkeley, under the direction of Rev. Comfort Smith.

The new Mrs. Hansen wore an embroidered nylon net full length gown, and a short veil with a pearl crown. She carried a prayer book with white orchids and Stephanotis.

Her maid of honor was her sister, Joan.

James Seagrave of Oakland was the best man and ushers were Roe Jones of Oakland, Tom MaMurch of Oakland, and Bob Rose of Oakland.

The couple honeymooned in Las Vegas and planned to travel south. They will live in Oakland. Robert has his own business in Berkeley.

Nancy attended San Jose State College for one year, and is now employed in an administrative capacity with the University of California.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Ben Drake of Moraga.

Bridge Tourney Winners Told

Winners in the June 6 bridge tournament at the Suburban Bridge Club were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Anderson, tied for 1st place.

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Matulich were in third place; Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Burnette, first place; Mr. and Mrs. William C. Johnson, second place; Mr. and Mrs. N. C. VanWinkle, third place.

All winners are from the Concord and Pleasant Hill areas.

Tournaments are held every Thursday in the Williams Elementary School library at 7:45 p.m. Players new to duplicate bridge especially are invited to attend.

Contra Costa and the other bay district counties are faced with control or chaos, Reginald H. Biggs, president of the San Francisco Bay Area Council told 150 county leaders at the annual dinner and installation of officers of the Contra Costa County Development Association Tuesday, as he strongly urged "an area-wide approach" to many problems to assure orderly development.

The event was held at Mt. Diablo Country Club and saw the seating of Aubrey Macomber of Martinez as president of the Association as successor of H. W. Saunders of Lafayette.

BIGGS, VICE PRESIDENT of Emporium Capwell Company and a resident of Walnut Creek, stressed the necessity for area-wide action by declaring that in 1970 Contra Costa County will have a population of 659,000 and the bay area 4,788,000.

"That means that in 1970 there will be 15 persons in the county for every nine now," he said. "By 1990 the population here will be 1,000,000, three times as many as now. The same ratio of growth will occur in other bay counties."

Biggs was presented by C. P. Tanner, chairman of the association's special events committee.

Saunders welcomed the group and introduced Edward M. Larmer of Walnut Creek, past association president, as master of ceremonies. Chairman Ray S. Taylor of the Board of Supervisors, spoke on the sphere of association activities and declared it has been a vehicle of accomplishment for the county.

Macomber's new official staff is composed of six vice presidents: A. F. Bray Jr., Martinez attorney; V. A. Fink, Concord, manager of General Chemical Company's plant; Jack O. Fries, Martinez councilman; C. W. Reiff, Richmond, manager of the Standard Oil Company's refinery; L. T. Schreiber, Ygnacio Valley appraiser, and M. S. Thomson, Oleum, manager of the Union Oil Company refinery.

C. P. Tanner continues as treasurer and Mrs. Theo Oltman, Martinez, as corporate secretary.

Scholarships Go to College Students in Area

Eighteen scholarships having a total $2325 value, two awards of science books and a medal were conferred upon 20 East Contra college hour ceremonies.

According to Miss Faye S. Jasmann, faculty member in charge, the awards were in recognition of academic achievement, generally in a specific field. They went to local students from Contra Costa as follows:

From Concord: Jay Dewitt Terry, outstanding graduating music major, $150 from the California Music Teachers Association of Contra Costa; Richard O. McInerney, $250 Chico State College scholarship; Maxine Helen Esslinger, second-year student, $50 from the Diablo Dental Assistants Society; Michael August Faia, Spanish major, the Louis S. Cohen Memorial Award of $50.

From Walnut Creek: Hari Krishnam Naidu of the Fiji Islands, $50 from the East Contra Costa Junior College Patrons Association, an open award; Don Ames Beckley, engineering major, the $500 Gladding McBean Scholarship in Ceramic Engineering, awarded through the University of California and the California Alumni Association; Paul R. Lundgren, outstanding chemistry student, a Chemical Rubber Chemistry Achievement Book award.

From Lafayette: Thomas Lorenzo Goudreaux, for general scholarship, $350 State of California Scholarship.

Eagle Scouts To Be Honored At Banquet

Twenty-six Eagle Scouts and three explorers who have earned the Silver Award in 1956 will be guests of honor at a Top Award Banquet at the El Nido Hotel, Lafayette, Wednesday, it is announced by Raymond Van Tassel, chairman of the Meridian District Advancement Committee.

A committee is headed by Van Tassel and the District Advancement Committee, plus Duncan H. Knudsen, district chairman; Lester Lloyd, district commissioner, and G. H. Macey, executive board member.

Ed Pillsbury, president of Mt. Diablo Council, will be the featured speaker. Victor L. Lindblad, scout executive, will also be on the program.

Opening ceremony, "To the Colors," will feature Peder Knudsen, Eagle Scout of Troop 223, who will attend the international jubilee in London in July as a member of the official Jubilee Band.

Purpose of the Top Award Banquet, according to Van Tassel, is to give each young man an opportunity to rub elbows with a top executive in the industry which he has tentatively selected as his life occupation.

In some cases hobbies, rather than occupations, will be the criteria for assignment of a scout to a sponsor. But the main idea is to help the boy and at the same time give the top men of the community a close-up of the top young men of their own community as exemplified by the Eagle Scouts and Silver Award Explorers.

'Insurance Pie' Measure Signed

A $50,000-a-year state "insurance pie" was ended June 6 when Governor Goodwin Knight signed into law a bill prohibiting all state employees including legislators from accepting commissions for the placing of state insurance.

The measure, authored by Assembly minority leader William Munnell (D-Montebello), ended a long-standing policy in which the state negotiated directly with insurance companies and then assigned the commissions from these policies to an individual of the administration's choice.

FOLLOWING newspaper disclosures of this policy last fall, an investigation by the Assembly finance and insurance committee of which Munnell is chairman, led to an investigation of the policy and the bill.

One of several legislators named by the investigation was Donald Doyle, Lafayette Republican.

The bill was opposed by State Senator George Miller Jr.

The Martinez Democrat termed its provisions "discriminatory" in that only insurance agents and not other professionals were barred from accepting state fees.

HOWEVER, both Doyle and Miller supported the bill on its final vote.

NEW TRI-DAM

How P. G. & E. works with farmers in the great Tri-Dam Project on the Stanislaus River... to bring more water and electricity to California

On the Stanislaus River, three big dams are nearing completion—a joint project of the Oakdale and South San Joaquin Irrigation Districts, to be dedicated June 15. The Tri-Dam Project means a lot of new irrigation water for the Oakdale, Manteca, Ripon, Escalon and Riverbank areas. On its way to the fields, the water will turn electric generators, producing enough electricity to supply 145,000 homes. P.G. and E. will distribute the power, paying the Irrigation Districts $115,000,000 for it over a 45-year contract period. This revenue pays for the three dams and powerhouses. Thus a vast new source of irrigation water is provided FREE. And P. G. and E. gets another source of power to serve the growing needs of its customers. P.G. and E. has business arrangements like this with a number of other water development projects in Northern and Central California. And everyone benefits.

John Vrieling, President of the South San Joaquin Irrigation District, says this about the P. G. and E. cooperative plan: "The contract with P. G. and E. will give sufficient revenue to meet all the construction, operating and maintenance costs of the project. So the additional water made available to the land owners is free at the canal. And I believe it's a good arrangement for P. G. and E., too, because it provides the Company with another source of power. It's a good deal all around."

Everyone benefits from these time tested joint-development water projects. They help assure plenty of power for growing California, help you live better electrically.

FOR LAND'S SAKE

By LLOYD K. KING

Open Season Locally-- Hunters Using Cars!

A deer was struck by an automobile in downtown Walnut Creek (Alma Avenue) a short time ago. This only proves that our county still has a rural atmosphere. The woman driver asked FRITZ VON TAGEN (son of City Councilman) who was standing nearby if the deer was hurt—he said “No—it’s dead”—she sped off.

This is supposed to be true department—in Berkeley there is a small unpaved parking lot, which used to rent stalls on a monthly basis for $3—never completely filled. When City built an off-street parking lot nearby demand skyrocketed—spaces now rent for $5 per month and there is a waiting list.

IT'S BEING SAID that a contractor, who got a government contract for the construction of rocket installations nearby, went bankrupt on the job—it seems he poured a concrete launching platform 9 inches off center. This was a serious error because a few inches difference at the launching point makes a large difference in the path of the projectile.

Government required contractor to tear up installation and move a few inches—concrete was 30 feet deep!

PAUL GAILUS (Concord real estate broker) announced that FORREST PARK ESTATES in Concord is now under way. This will be a 100-lot subdivision of homes in the $20,000 to $25,000 bracket, close in to Concord. TOM DI MAGGIO (cousin of Joe) is builder.

AL INGALLS (Lafayette Realty) told me that public speaking has been a wonderful asset to him in business. Al was a charter member of the Walnut Creek Toastmasters and is still active in this group. Toastmastering is, without question, one of the most beneficial educations a businessman can receive.

Did you know KEN CUNNINGHAM, Walnut Creek's newest Realtor (1709 Mt. Diablo Blvd.) spent 35 years in the banking business.

Education for the Educators

ERNIE HOLLY, secretary of the General Contractors' Association of Contra Costa County, was very enthusiastic about the Career Opportunities Program his organization sponsored last Saturday at Alcanes High School. Top flight labor and management people explained to high school instructors and counselors the opportunities that exist in the building industry. High school graduates who aren't able to obtain a college education won't be limited in this field.

DAVE COTTON—well-known Real Estate Broker, has just joined THE LATHROP CONSTRUCTION COMPANY. Included in his responsibilities will be the sales in Lathrop's new subdivision in the beautiful PLEASANTON VALLEY.

Summer Sessions Planned for Area Grade Pupils

Summer session Three R's—Remedial, Recreation, enrichment—will be emphasized in classes to be conducted throughout Contra Costa County, it was announced today.

Seven school districts besides Contra Costa Junior College will conduct summer sessions, beginning soon. The classes are geared particularly to assist students who wish to make up deficiencies, to participate in swimming and other recreational activities, or to take up studies for which they do not have sufficient time during the regular school terms.

Contra Costa Junior College classes will be held at both the east campus near Concord and the west campus at San Pablo beginning Monday.

Other summer sessions include the following:

Lafayette - June 24-August 2, academic program at Lafayette School 9 a.m. to noon and play-ground and arts and crafts 1 to 4 p.m. at Lafayette School and 9 a.m. to noon at Burton, M. H. Stanley, Montecito, Springhill and Vallecito Schools.

Mt. Diablo Unified - July 1-August 9—Elementary, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m., at Diablo Vista, 277 Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill; Meadow Homes, 235 Detroit Avenue, Concord; Wren Avenue, 3339 Wren Avenue, Concord; Hillcrest, 2900 Avon Avenue, Concord; Intermediate (grades 7-8), 8 a.m. to noon, Pleasant Hill Intermediate, 265 Boyd Road, Pleasant Hill. Grades 9-12, including 1957 eighth grade graduates, 8 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., Mt. Diablo High School, Grant Street, Concord.

Will's All-Stars Whip Diablo Drug 11 to 1

Goose Gausoan Releases Only 4 Scattered Hits

Will's All Stars hammered out a convincing 11-1 win over Diablo Drug in the Walnut Creek softball league Wednesday.

Goose Gausoan on the mound for the winners gave up but four hits while striking out five. His hits were well scattered with no more than one coming in any inning.

JESSE BELL on the hill for the losers gave up eight safeties while striking out three. Will's club held a 6-0 advantage at the end of five innings of play and when Diablo Drug posted one in the sixth the All Stars came back to rack up five more runs on two hits and six errors to ice the contest.

Thursday, the girls took to the diamond and when the last out had been called the local Merle Norman nine lost to the San Francisco Independents 6-2.

The hitting power was equal as each club collected six safe blows but errors in crucial spots spelled defeat for the local club.

Mattee Samson was the winning pitcher while Jan Overby was charged with the loss.

WINONA DAVIS of Merle Norman was the big stick getting two for four with a double and a home run. Lou Harlon, also of Normans wacked off two for four with a double and a triple.

In an exhibition game Friday, Rheem and Catalina Builders came up with one of the season's best to date with Catalina winning 6-3. Dick Norberg was the winning hurler while John Hoac was charged with the defeat.

Rheem Center outlasted Diablo Drug 5-4 in another league game Monday night. Diablo started first as they collected three runs in the first only to have Rheem come back in the first to score four runs of their own.

RHEEM STRETCHED its lead when it scored a run in the fifth but Diablo added one in the sixth making the county 5-4 and that's the way it wound up.

Gene Bell pitching for Diablo gave up eight hits and struck out one while Ed Vick of the winners gave up four hits and struck out two.

New Stocks are On Speedway, Tomorrow Eve

The Pacific Coast's five leaders in stock car racing are entered in Contra Costa Speedway's 200-lap, late model race, tomorrow night.

Eddie Pagan, who will wheel a '57 Ford, is leading the field by over 200 points in the latest NASCAR standings. Following Pagan is another new Ford Driver, Lloyd Dane.

Scott Cain, speedster from Culver City, is in third with his '56 Mercury. George Seeger, Torrance, is fourth in his new Ford, and Dick Getty fifth in a '56 Chevrolet.

Two San Jose drivers, Danny Graves and Clyde Palmer, now in the second ten, will be out to improve their positions at the track near Walnut Creek.

Graves and Palmer have their mechanics working on their new Chevies with hopes they can end the Ford monopoly.

Pagan has taken three of the four events in which he drove and Dane took the fourth one.

The leaders will have added competition from two local hard-top drivers, Bob Caswell and Chet Thomson, leaders at the Contra Costa oval, plan to use their local track experience against the hotter cars of the invading drivers.

Twenty-four cars are entered in the time trials, starting at 7 p.m. Two 10-lap heats will precede the main event.

Cookie Lavagetto Story Tells of Home Town Boy

The "Cookie" Lavagetto story is one that might well read "Local Boy Makes Good". Cookie was raised in the Bay Area and went up to big league ball via the once popular Oakland "Oaks." His legal residence, as it has been for the past nine years, is 46 Tara Road, Orinda, and that's where he heads once the baseball season is over. The rest of the year his mailing address is Washington, D.C.

Some names are synonymous with baseball and Cookie's is one of them. His official moniker is Harry Arthur Lavagetto but from the time he broke into professional baseball with the Oaks fresh out of prep circles he has been called Cookie.

IN 1933 he joined the Oaks as a third baseman and wasted little time in moving up the ladder going to work for Pittsburgh in 1934 and was traded to Brooklyn in '37.

He was with the Bums for seven years taking four years out for military service.

There have been many highlights in his baseball career but one of the highest was when in the 1947 world series with Yankee Bill Bevens hurling a no hitter with two down in the night he knocked out a safe bet to win the game.

HE'S PLAYED in the all star games of 1940 and '41. Cookie came back to the Oaks as a player coach in '48 when they copped the Pacific Coast League Pennant. Stegal moved up to the Yanks as manager and Chuck Dressen had moved in with the Oaks.

Lavagetto retired from playing in '54 and confined himself to coaching duties.

Dressen went to manage the Senators in 1954 and took Lavagetto with him. Lavagetto had been previously coached by Dressen when he had managed the Brooks.

DRESSEN WAS moved upstairs and Cookie was offered the managerial position. Loyal to the end, he held that Dressen could do a better job and then finally accepted the post.

Many feel that Cookie will do an outstanding job. He has that touch so essential to be successful in handling men.

The group has been actively trying to secure the necessary property for two years and has just managed to get a 60 day option on 4.3 acres just off Stanley Boulevard in back of Acalanes High School.

The plans for the area go before the planning commission with a final hearing July 3.

Approval of the plans means that construction will start July 16. Tentative bids for the work have already been received. The heated main pool will be 80 feet by 50 feet at the shallow end and 30 feet wide at the deep end.

A wading pool 24 feet in diameter, a recreation area and picnic area are also provided.

Two hundred families are the goal set by the directors with the initial cost set at $200 per family. Anyone interested and living within five miles of the area is urged to call one of the following numbers for information: YE 4-2828; YE 4-7542; YE 4-7489.

Athletic Awards Made at PH High

Awards were given in seven spring sports to Pleasant Hill High athletes at the fourth annual spring banquet in the multipurpose room last week.

Team coaches awarding trophies included Gordon Maddux, wrestling and gymnastics; Art Poulin, swimming; Hal Briggs and Wes Laubscher, track; Jack Bonnickson, tennis; John Kaputof, golf and Lyle Palmer, baseball.

The team captains awarded trophies included Gordon Maddux, wrestling and gymnastics; Jim Fullerton, wrestling; Artie Day, gymnastics; Dan Ipson, track; Jim Cunnison, tennis; John Krampert, golf and Mike Cereda, baseball.

Cereda took the most valuable player honors in baseball, while Mike Slusher was voted the most improved player.

Ron Lichti, who attended the meeting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lichti of Concord, was voted the most worthy opponent.

Reserve officers of the Contra Costa County Sheriff's Department served 7386 hours free of charge from September, 1955 to June of last year, according to a report by Sheriff Harry A. Brown.

Brown said that if the same patrol work had been done by regular paid officers, the cost to the county would have been $14,772.

There are some 200 trained reserves ready for duty "at a moment's notice," and another 300 men available for civil emergencies only, he said.

Women Voters Stage Meetings

The local units of the Concord League of Women Voters met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. R. J. Moore, 4 Van Cleave Lane, Walnut Creek, at the home of Mrs. R. E. Thomas, 5015 Laurel Drive, Concord on Wednesday; yesterday at the home of Mrs. Charles Condrotte, 800 Holly Hill Drive, Walnut Creek; and last night with Mrs. Robert Karplus, 57 Overhill Road, Orinda.

The program for this meetings was an Evaluation Study of the local league, as well as reports on the recent state convention which took place in San Francisco last month.

Five honors were won by troops of the Meridian District, Mt. Diablo County of Boy Scouts, recently, during the Camporee held at Camp Stoneman.

Troop 219 of Lafayette won first for fire-building, Troop 244 of Orinda took first for woodsplitting. Third places were taken by Troop 230 of Pleasant Hill for the blindfold compass course, Troop 224 of Lafayette for woodsplitting and Troop 243 of Lafayette for flag-jack flipping.

The district itself placed second at the Camporee.

Pitching Jumps Concord To Legion League Tie

A pair of strong pitching performances have boosted Concord American Legion Post 171 into a first place tie in Ninth District Legion Junior standings.

The Concordites won home games from Richmond 5-2 and Walnut Creek 7-3 last Saturday and Sunday to move into a tie with the strong Richmond club. Both teams now have a 3-1 record.

RON LICHTI, all-division Mt. Diablo pitcher, limited the Oilers to four hits struck out 17, and won his won ball game with a bases loaded triple in the fifth inning. Concord coupled two singles with a pair of walks and Lichti's triple to score all their runs in the fifth.

Richmond took a short-lived fourth inning lead on singles by Marv DeBarnadini and Bill Turley, a Concord error and a wild pitch.

WALNUT CREEK outthrew Concord 9-6 in Sunday's contest but the Diablo nine made all their hits count to take the victory and the league lead.

Big blow of the game was a two-run fifth inning double by Dan Barney. Terry Sieberlich had two hits and Beaubien three for the losers.

Richmond can move into exclusive possession of the district lead this week by winning a home game against Pittsburg and a contest at East Contra Costa field against Martinez.

THE CO-LEADERS, Concord, draw a Saturday bye and play their first road game of the season Sunday at San Pablo.

Walnut Creek, sharing third place and a 2-1 record with Martinez, can move up if either of the leaders slip.

They play in Richmond Saturday against Harry Ellis Post and travel to Pittsburg on Sunday. The Pitt club has yet to win a league game.

Entries are now being received for the Second Annual Quarter Horse Show to be held by the Contra Costa County Horsemen's Association in Concord June 29 and 30.

The show has been approved by the American Quarter Horse Association and the Pacific Coast Cutting Horse Association, thereby making the points won eligible towards American Quarter Horse Association Championship and/or Register of Merit.

Outstanding among the horse show events will be a "Spectator Favorite," a Novice Cutting Horse Class which is open to the world. All other classes will be closed to registered quarter horses.

Other show events will be halter classes for colts, stallions, fillies, and mares to be exhibited June 29 and performance classes to be shown June 30.

Fifty per cent of the entry fees will be split 40-30-20 and 10 per cent for all classes, with the exception of the Cutting Class which will have 80 per cent of the entry fee split as above.

All classes will be judged by Dan O'Neill with the exception of the Cutting Horse Class which will be judged by Jim Black.

A barbecue and get-together will be held the evening of June 29 at a nominal fee.

Entry blanks may be obtained by writing to Marie B. Doty, 2065 Stewart Avenue, Walnut Creek, California.

She plans enrolling at East Contra Costa Junior College, Phyllis is five feet, seven inches in height; weighs 123 pounds; has brunette hair, fair complexion; and hazel eyes. She was this year's Diablo campus sweetheart and Concord Chamber of Commerce darling.

IRENE MATILDA PIEPER, 17, 1855 Trinity Avenue, Walnut Creek, 1957 graduate of Las Lomas High School and daughter of Mrs. Greta M. Pieper. She will continue her education at University of California at Davis. Her talent is dress designing. She won first prize in a California Grange sewing contest and got honorable mention in a national contest.

Irene is five feet, 10 inches in height; weighs 128 pounds; has light brown hair, fair complexion, and green eyes.

Previously announced local entrants are: Sue Ann Roberts, 17, 2025 Overhill Road, Concord; Claudette Van Allen, 18, 989 Hawthorn Drive, Lafayette.

David B. Mitchell, Mare Island Nuclear Engineering Department, discussed nuclear reactors, their function and construction at last night's meeting of Diablo Chapter, California Society of Professional Engineers. This talk was at Stan's Brick House, Walnut Creek.

The Diablo Chapter of Professional Engineers embraces all fields of engineering and membership is open to all registered engineers.

Miramonte Makes Mark in North Coast Track Meet

Miramonte High really became of age in the prep track world when they copped the Bee title in the North Coast track meet held at Berkeley recently.

The win is especially noteworthy in that Miramonte has only freshmen and sophomores on the roster in a limited number. Dixon Farmer was the top point getter and insured the win with his sterling performance.

Mt. Diablo High once again came from behind to win another game in league ball pay when they defeated Antioch in a makeup game the afternoon of May 27. Trailing 2-0 at the end of three innings of play, shortstop Art Parganiant hit a bases loaded homer in the top of the fourth to put the Devils out in front to stay 4-2.

Antioch added one in the 6th but it was too little and too late. The win not only widened Diablo's margin in the championship race but probably insured the fast shortstop's selection as All League for the second year.

I see where Charley Tourville, a junior at Oregon, has received rave notices for his spring practice football play which has placed him on first string ahead of Leroy Phelps, a senior and a regular last season.

Tourville is an Alhambra High grad who cut a wide swath in local prep gridiron circles. It looks like Martinez will have a left half back to root for during the college football season.

Softball has opened its season again but much of the popularity has dwindled partly due to youth baseball.

Walnut Creek for instance has single games on Monday, Wednesday and Friday with the girls taking over on Thursday. All games are at 9 with the Little Leaguers taking over in the earlier games each evening.

Prominent in the Walnut Creek Softball and back at it as he has been since the W. C. Park's inception is Les Lloyd, who is managing one of the clubs in the circuit.

Speaking of Little League two of the best parks in the area are located in Concord. Complete with 60' bases and a grass infield along with a 175' fence the parks are miniature replicas of the big league versions.

Concord has really gone all out in baseball interest with two official Little Leagues plus a Babe Ruth circuit of their own and an American Legion club plus a town team.

It's really "Play ball at Concord."

Crippled Children's Day Camp Will be in WC Park

The annual summer day camp of the Contra Costa County Crippled Children's Society will be held this year at the Walnut Creek city park, it was announced by Mrs. Dee Sheneman of Concord, unit president.

The camp will begin August 19 and last until August 30.

Crippled and handicapped children of the county, between the ages of 6 and 16, are eligible to attend.

A PAID director will conduct a day-long program of crafts, games, and other events for the youngsters, with volunteer workers assisting. Transportation and other costs will be paid by the Society.

Mrs. Karl Gehringer of Oakland has been named day camp chairman and is completing arrangements for the annual outing.

Details were discussed at a recent meeting of board of directors of the Society held in the garden of the Martinez home of Mrs. Francis Hoey.

Mrs. J. E. Taylor, Oakley, case director for the Society, also reported on recent assistance to crippled children of the county.

FEES WERE paid, she reported, for orthodontistry, corrective shoes, hospitalization costs, medication for an asthmatic child and special necessities for a blind youngster and one with an incurable heart condition.

Mrs. Otto Lichti, Port Chicago, reported that case committee workers would assist Mrs. Taylor in the areas. They include Mrs. John Brubaker, Pleasant Hill, Martinez; Mrs. Alma Goodloe, Concord; Mrs. Sheneman, Alamo; Danville; Mrs. A. H. Spinney, Port Chicago, Pittsburg.

A nominating committee was named to present a slate of officers for nomination and election at the September meeting in Walnut Creek.

It includes Mesdames Alma Goodloe, Walnut Creek; George Deubner, Lafayette; Spinney, Alamo; Gehringer, Oakley.

THIRD SECTION ORINDA SUN

Friday, June 14, 1957

Weavers Show Craft Technique

Members of the Diablo Weavers Guild traveled to Sacramento the weekend of May 25 for the fifth annual conference of Northern California Handweavers.

There were exhibits by 22 guilds and a dozen commercial suppliers, demonstrations of weaving and spinning, lectures, a luncheon and a fashion show of handwoven garments.

The Diablo exhibit featured a beach scene with a background painted by Mrs. Margaret Warnke of Lafayette, and included such handwoven articles as a shade umbrella, a hammock, swim suits, shorts, a beach towel, hat and bag, sandals, pedal pushers, a man's shirt, sunsuit and skirt back rest and a tweed jacket.

Chairman of the exhibit was Mrs. Marie Stengel Lafayette.

Ribbons for outstanding fabrics were won by Mesdames Jean Evers Concord; Madeline Frincke, Alameda; Suzie Warren, Lafayette, and Lin Nickerson, Alamo.

Other articles were displayed by Mrs. Alberta Benon, Martinez; Mrs. Julia Elick, Ruth Schwerin, Marie Stengel, Lafayette; Alice Evans, Claire Pfeiffer, Alma Phillips, Walnut Creek; Estelle Gore, Ardine Holcombe and Marge Snipe, Alamo.

The Diablo Weavers Guild is a study group for local handweavers. Persons interested in joining are invited to call Mrs. Alice Evans, president, at YE 4-6595, or any other member of the club.

The last meeting of the season will be held in late June—a picnic-swim party at the home of Mrs. Emma Flanders, Walnut Creek.

Directors Named

Three newly appointed members of the Contra Costa County Advisory Board for Guide Dogs For the Blind are Jack F. Varner of Walnut Creek, Mrs. A. L. Pelusi of Danville and Miss Anna M. Pleasant of Pittsburg.

Evergreen Vines Provide Beauty, Companionship

By THE GARDNER

SUMMERTIME in California means outdoor living time.

All over the state families will be eating, playing and relaxing in their backyards and on their patios while enjoying the companionship of summer blooming plants.

Among the loveliest of summer flowering plants are the evergreen vines that can be planted to give shade and protection from wind and beauty.

THE TRUMPET vines include a variety of flowering evergreens suitable for planting throughout most of California.

The Blood-Red Trumpet Vine (Phaedranthus buccinatorius or Bignonia chere) is a fast-growing plant with glossy deep green foliage and flowers in gradations from yellow to rose-red.

Once this vine is established, it's a strong, high-growing climber; plant it in the sun against a wall or high trellis. Prune each year to keep under control; feed and water generously.

VIOLET or pale lavender trumpet pets appear on the Violet Trumpet vine (Clytostoma callistegoides or Bignonia violacea) in early spring and the middle of summer.

Its foliage is a dark glossy green. The Violet Trumpet vine is strong-growing and needs support on a wall.

It can be grown in sun or part shade and should be treated as a perennial in colder climates.

THE BOUGAINVILLEA is one of the more popular of evergreen flowering vines.

Its height of blooms comes in July; there are varieties blooming in shades of purple, red, magenta, scarlet—all brilliant and eye-catching.

The Bougainvillea is strong-growing and will twine to 20 feet. Plant this vine against a warm wall; control it with pruning and feed generously.

ONE OF THE MOST fragrant flowering vines is the Gold Coast Jasmine (Jasminum dichomum), which grows rapidly in sun or part shade.

This Jasmine has thick, glossy leaves and fragrant clusters of white flowers (Jasminum humile) from July to September. It will do well in sun or part shade; the willow shoots reach to 20 feet.

MASSSES OF BRILLIANT blue bells cover the Australian Blue bell Creeper (Sollya fusiformis) through most of the summer.

This vine grows as a low climber or trailing shrub and does well in full sun or part shade in coastal area, part shade inland.

Checklist Gives Timely Advice

Your garden checklist offers the following advice:

1. A new chemical is available which will kill all types of grasses, including bermuda and quack grass. Just spray the foliage and your worries are over. Doesn't sterilize the soil, either.

2. Lawn moth damage can be controlled by the use of chlordane or dieldrin.

3. It is frequently desirable to thin Clematis armandi vines (Evergreen Clematis) after they finish their main spring bloom.

4. Some evergreen shrubbery can be pruned for shape at this time.

5. If you failed to plant tuberous begonia tubers earlier, it's still too late. Most nurseries are offering tuberous begonia seedlings or tubers now.

Dambacher Named By Safety Council

Arthur D. Dambacher, Acalanes District adult education director, has been named chairman of the school section of the Contra Costa Safety Council.

Dambacher is also active in the county school civil defense program and is safety co-ordinator for the Acalanes District.

This not only kills sod webworm (the lawn moth larvae that cause brown spots), it can set up control against future broods. Simply apply ORTHO Lawn-Garden Granules with fertilizer spreader. You halt other lawn-damaging insects at the same time; the insecticides in these granules—dieldrin and lindane—do away with cutworms, sowbugs, etc. Even control ants!
